PLUNKET, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of June, 1907.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of "The Sea-fisheries Act, 1894" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make regulations, which shall have general force and effect throughout the colony, or particular force and effect only in any waters or places specified therein, for, amongst other things, prescribing conditions and restrictions for the regulation of fishing and taking of fish, and for prohibiting the use of any particular tackle or apparatus for taking any fish:

And whereas it is desirable to prohibit the taking of fish by means of nets in the upper portion of the Otago Harbour hereinafter described:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purposes of the said Act, and doth hereby further order that the same shall come into force from and after the date hereof:—

REGULATIONS.

1. No person shall haul or use a net for the purpose of taking fish in that portion of Otago Harbour on the upper side of a line drawn from the north-eastern end of the Ravensbourne Railway-station on the western side of the harbour to the north-eastern end of Macandrew's Wharf on the eastern side of the harbour.

2. Any person committing a breach of clause 1 of these regulations is liable to a penalty of not less than £1 and not exceeding £20.
