

Certified Homes under the Reformatory Institutions Act, 1909.

ISLINGTON, Governor.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the Reformatory Institutions Act, 1909, hereinafter termed the said Act, it is provided that the Governor, on the application of any person or society (whether incorporated or not) desirous of establishing or maintaining a Reformatory Home, may by Warrant gazetted, if satisfied as to the fitness of the Home and of the person or society proposing to establish or maintain it, certify it as a Reformatory Home under the said Act, and thereupon and at all times thereafter while the Warrant is in force the Home so certified shall be a certified Reformatory Home under the said Act:

And whereas the Salvation Army is desirous of establishing and maintaining Reformatory Homes at Christchurch and Dunedin respectively, and has made application accordingly:

Now, therefore, I, John Poynder Dickson-Poynder, Baron Islington, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, being satisfied of the fitness of the Homes proposed to be so established, do hereby certify the Salvation Army Rescue Homes for women at Christchurch and Dunedin respectively, as described in the Schedule hereto, to be Reformatory Homes under the said Act.
