Regulations to prevent Trespassing on the Titi and other Islands, and to protect the Birds known as Titi or Mutton-birds frequenting them from Destruction.

ISLINGTON, Governor.

WHEREAS by section twenty-four of the Land Act, 1908, it is provided that the Governor may from time to time make special regulations for securing to the Natives the Titi Islands and certain other islands adjacent to Stewart Island, and for protecting such islands from trespassers, and the birds frequenting them from destruction:

And whereas it is expedient to make such regulations accordingly:

Now, therefore, I, John Poynder, Dickson-Poynder, Baron Islington, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said section twenty-four, do hereby make the following regulations for the purposes aforesaid, and do hereby declare that the said regulations shall come into force on the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

"The said land" means the land or any part thereof described in the Schedule hereto.

2. It shall not be lawful for any European to take titi or mutton-birds or their eggs from the said land at any time, or to enter on the said land in the search or pursuit of titi or mutton-birds or their eggs.

3. The Natives shall not enter on the said land earlier than the 15th day of March in each year. Birding shall not commence earlier than the 1st day of April, or, if the Commissioner thinks fit, in the event of any of the Natives being delayed in landing through stress of weather, not earlier than the 10th April, and must cease on the 31st day of May in each year.
