

AUCKLAND.—21st ultimo, from outside the shop of ERNEST SAMUEL GRIBBLE, hatter and mercer, Symonds Street, a gentlemen's fawn rainproof coat, lined with pale green silk, side pockets, "The Gresham Rain-coat" and trade-mark (a fly-wheel) on tab; value, £3. Identifiable.

AUCKLAND.—17th March last, from a handbag at Manson's Diningrooms, Queen Street, the property of JESSIE RAWLINSON, waitress, an oval gold locket, set with three white sapphires, a pearl, and two rubies in front, a Masonic star on the back, photographs of two women and a child inside; value, £7. Identifiable.

EPSOM (AUCKLAND).—Between the 11th and 16th February last, from a stable at the back of AUSTIN CARR'S premises in Ranfurly Road, a gentlemen's saddle, made by Wiseman, Auckland, pizskin seat and flaps, two stirrup-leathers, and two solid nickel two-bar stirrup-irons; value, £4. Identifiable.

NEWTON.—During the night of the 16th ultimo the shop of BRUNETTA TREVETHICK, winegrower, Karangahape Road, was broken into, and a small enamelled cash-box, value 2s., containing about £4 in mixed silver, stolen. Box identifiable.

PONSONBY.—22nd ultimo, from the shelter-shed at the Shell Beach Baths, the property of JAMES SEDDON, joiner, 10 Arawa Street, a gentlemen's silver keyless open-face watch, "Russell, 18 Church Street, Liverpool," on dial, "Time of day" on inside case; value, £3 10s. Identifiable.

HAMILTON.—15th ultimo, from outside the Defence Office, the property of WILLIAM WILLIAMSON, clerk, care of Mrs. Underwood, Hamilton, two dark-blue rugs, a greyish-green tweed suit (size 5), a pair of size 7 black lace-up boots, a soft white shirt, a hair-brush, a tooth-brush and tooth-paste, two pairs of socks, and a suit of pyjamas; total value, £8. Identifiable.

HAMILTON.—22nd ultimo, the shop of FREDERICK GEORGE KEEP, bootmaker, was broken into, and the following articles stolen: Two pairs of tan leather leggings, branded inside "S 965 S" "388/2S," and a pair of size 10 black glaze leather boots No. 2774484920, branded on tags "The Walkalong Shoe"; total value, £2 12s. 6d. Identifiable.

HAMILTON.—26th ultimo, from outside the shop of JOHN HOWARD DALTON, tailor, a brownish-grey tweed overcoat, size 5, outside pockets, split at back; value, £2 14s. Identifiable.

NAPIER.—23rd ultimo, from the dwelling of MRS. ELIZABETH INNES, Shakespeare Terrace: A gentlemen's small-sized gold watch, hunting-case, makers Hutchinson and Sons, Edinburgh, very old and worn smooth, indistinct crest of boar's head and the motto "Betrayed" on outside of case (No. 9379 or 9739); an open-faced silver Waltham watch, circular spear-mark on glass face, "F. Innes" scratched on works (No. 4139962); a piece of gold open curb chain, 8 in. long, well worn, with a three-cornered greenstone medalion backed with gold attached, with the inscription "F. W. I." on the back; a gold thermometer-case, with a snake twined round, inscribed thereon "To F. W. I. from F. Von M."; an elliptical-shaped gold locket, about 1½ in. long, with lock of hair inside, a gold-mounted stone pendant, green spotted with red on one side and white on the other; total value, £20. Identifiable.

TAIHAPE.—On or about 22nd ultimo, from the dwelling of DAVENPORT LEDWARD, farmer, Ngaurukehu, a greenstone mere, about 12 in. long, 5 in. wide and ¾ in. thick, small chip out of edge about 3 in. from top; value, £25. Identifiable. Suspicion is attached to Howard Weddy, age twenty-seven, height 5 ft. 8 in., flax-mill hand, medium build, light-coloured hair, florid complexion, small fair moustache. Said to be working at Koputaroa.

BULL'S.—During the night of the 26th ultimo, the dwelling of DUNCAN McLEAN, farmer, Turakina, was burglariously entered and two plate-glass mirrors 3 ft. 6 in. by 5 ft. 6 in. stolen; value, £6. Identification doubtful.

LEVIN.—13th ultimo, from the dwelling of CHARLES JENKINS, jockey, Heatherlea, a gentlemen's open-faced, keyless, gold stop-watch, No. 66570, with private number "7038" scratched on inside edge of back case, with three faces for hours, seconds, and split seconds, and three sets of hands with a small dial for each set, plain case, white dial, maker Hall and Co.; a double gold 9 or 18 carat fetter and oval watch-chain, similar to No. 24 in Police Gazette, 1911, showing signs of wear; a small gold-mounted quartz pendant; and a small round gold sovereign-case (chased case), with "C. J." engraved on it, attached; total value, £75. Identifiable.

WELLINGTON.—Between 26th and 28th ultimo, from the shop of FRANCIS JAMES WEBBER FEAR, cycle importer, 99 Willis Street, a gentlemen's new Argyle bicycle, No. 37078, B.S.A. pattern frame, black-enamelled nickel rims with red and black centres, fixed handles, black grips, rat-trap pedals, Leicester tires, Eadie brakes; value, £8. Identifiable.

MOUNT COOK.—Between 1st March and 4th ultimo, from the premises of GEORGE CHARLES SMART, contractor, 15 Arthur Street, a polished-cedar box, 7 in. by 8½ in., two ruling-pens with ivory handles, a pair of hair-spring dividers, a compass, three small spring compasses, an ivory-handled prickler, a knife and compass-key combined, and an ivory protractor and a pair of scales; total value, £9. Identifiable.

LYTELTON.—6th March last, from the premises of Mrs. Robinson, dressmaker, the property of MRS. McBRIDE, sub-matron, H.M. Prison, a gold bar brooch, with crescent in centre, set with pearls; a gold owl inside crescent; value, £2. Identifiable.

CHRISTCHURCH.—Between the 7th and 24th ultimo, from a shed at the rear of SAMUEL PAUL ANDREW'S premises in Woolston, two induction coils, two accumulators, an electric Rotex motor tail-lamp, a hand boring-machine, two claw-hammers, and upwards of ten spanners; total value, £14. Identifiable.

CHRISTCHURCH.—18th ultimo, from outside the office of BERNARD BEDDINGFIELD WOODS, coal-merchant, 176 Hereford Street, a Triumph motor-cycle, Nos. 21838 and 195027, black-enamelled, steel rims, rubber pedals, foot and front brakes, black grips, Lucas lamp; value, £33. Identifiable.

CHRISTCHURCH.—23rd ultimo, the dwelling of GEORGE WALTER HARGREAVES, clerk, Parsons Road, St. Martin's, was broken into, and the following articles stolen: A gentlemen's gun-metal watch; a ladies' gun-metal watch; a ladies' 9 ct. gold albert chain, with three strands, heart and Maltese cross in centre, and heart at each end; a ladies' 15 ct. gold chain, with small cross chased on one side attached; a pair of 15 ct. gold sleeve-links, torpedo pattern; a small round silver brooch, with amber-coloured thistle in centre; a silver brooch, with "Ella" thereon; an old-fashioned silver brooch, chased on front; a round red-enamel brooch, Manxman's coat-of-arms thereon; total value, £8. Identifiable.

TEMUKA.—26th ultimo, from McMeekin's smithy, the property of JOHN O'CONNELL, labourer, Seadown, a gentlemen's New Rapid bicycle, No. 15585, straight bars, black grips, left one missing, Brook's saddle with blue-felt cover, back-peddalling brake; value, £7. Identifiable.

PALMERSTON SOUTH.—21st ultimo, from outside Riddle's blacksmith shop, the property of JAMES HUGH CUNNINGHAM, farmer, a gentlemen's black-enamelled Anglo-Special bicycle, No. 74456, upturned handles, Brooks saddle, rat-trap pedals; value, £8. Identifiable.

DUNEDIN.—22nd ultimo, from a right-of-way in High Street, the property of THOMAS TYRELL, clerk, care of National Insurance Company, a gentlemen's black-enamelled Viking bicycle, No. 633, back-peddalling brake, steel mud-guards; value, £8. Identifiable.

DUNEDIN.—17th ultimo, from the Technical School in Moray Place, the property of FREDERICK JAMES LEWISHAM, plumber, King Street, a gentlemen's B.S.A. bicycle, No. 7837, "A. Thomson" on front bar, free wheel, Dunlop tires, Eadie hub, reversible handles; value, £13 10s. Identifiable.