Appointing a Prison for the Execution of Criminals.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me in that behalf by section fifteen of the Crimes Act, 1908, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby appoint the public prison at Lyttelton, known as the Lyttelton Prison, in the said Dominion, to be a prison where executions may take place under the provisions of the said Act.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

A. L. HERDMAN.

Notice respecting Raffles, &c., under the Gaming Act, 1908.

Department of Internal Affairs,
Wellington, 8th December, 1913.

THE following section of the Gaming Act, 1908, is published for general information:—

“42. (1.) If any person being the owner of any painting, drawing, sculpture, or other work of art, or literature, or mineral specimens, or mechanical models, applies to the Minister of Internal Affairs for permission to dispose of the same by raffle or chance, the said Minister may, if he thinks fit, grant a license for that purpose, subject to such conditions and restrictions as he thinks right to impose.

“(2.) If such conditions and restrictions are complied with, the provisions of this Act, or any other law for the time being in force relating to gaming and lotteries, shall not apply to such owner or to any other persons who may be bona fide concerned in such transaction.”

The words “or other work of art” in the above extract are held to mean articles of the nature of paintings, drawings, or sculptures. No articles except those mentioned in any license granted by the Minister of Internal Affairs shall be disposed of by raffle or chance, either as gifts to prize-winners or on any other pretext.

A copy of each license granted by the Minister will be sent to the Police, in order that proceedings may be taken in the event of any infringement of the Act.

H. D. BELL,
Minister of Internal Affairs.
