Publication of News relative to New Zealand Forces prohibited.

WHEREAS by regulations made under the War Regulations Act, 1914, on the 10th day of November, 1914, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the same day, it is made an offence punishable by imprisonment for any person other than a military or naval officer in the execution of his duty to publish or communicate, or permit to be published or communicated, any information relative to any military or naval matters as to which secrecy is enjoined by the Minister of Defence by notice published in the said Gazette:

Now, therefore, I, James Allen, Minister of Defence for the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance of the said regulations, order that secrecy shall be observed by all persons accordingly in respect of the matters following, that is to say:—

- (a.) The names, destination, situation, route, arrival, departure, or movements of any transports carrying or about to carry the troops of the New Zealand Military Forces, and all other matters relative to those transports.
- (b.) The names, destination, situation, route, arrival, departure, or movements of any ships employed or about to be employed to convey or accompany any such transports, and all other matters relative to those ships.
- (c.) Communications received from persons on board such transports or ships after their departure from New Zealand.

Dated this 11th day of December, 1914.

H. D. BELL,
For Minister of Defence.
