

The Police Gazette is a CONFIDENTIAL publication, and is issued for the information of members of the Police Force, and Officers engaged in the administration of justice, ONLY.

NEW ZEALAND POLICE GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1915.

NOTICE.—For instructions as to the manner in which reports are required to be furnished for the compilation of the Police Gazette see Gazette No. 1 of this year.

The arrest of offenders described in the Police Gazette, or respecting whom crime reports have been forwarded for insertion in the Gazette, should be promptly notified by the members of the Force effecting the arrest.

When notifying the arrest of persons charged with theft or suspected of theft, it should be stated whether the property stolen, or any portion of it, has been recovered.

A description of property supposed to be stolen, found in the possession of offenders, for which owners cannot be found, shall be furnished for insertion in the Gazette.

All communications concerning this Gazette should be addressed to the Commissioner of Police, Wellington, and the envelope marked "For Gazette." Members of the Force in charge of out-stations will forward them direct.

ABANDONED CHILD.

CHRISTCHURCH.—The child found abandoned on the 4th ultimo has been identified as belonging to a woman calling herself Mrs. Doris Templar or Miss Doris Evans, whose description is as follows: Age about thirty-one, short stout nuggety build, small features, round face, straight dark hair which is very scanty, medium complexion, all teeth missing, pale eyes, slightly freckled, neat figure. She stated that she was born at Lower Hutt, and is supposed to have relations in the Mangaweka district. She has the appearance of a servant, is supposed to be single, and is in possession of the following clothes: A tan sport's coat, a small black-felt hat without trimming, a white-straw hat with a red rose, a fawn raincoat, a black frock, a grey frock, a blue skirt with white stripes, a tussore-silk blouse, and wears a gold ring set with a red and a white stone. If located, she is to be kept under surveillance, and an urgent telegram sent to the Superintendent of Police, Christchurch. (See Police Gazette, 1915, page 143.)
