General Post Office, Wellington,

Memorandum for the Commissioner of Police, Wellington.]
I should be glad if you would bring under the notice of all police officers at the chief centres Rule 1070 (a) of this Department, offering a reward of £5 to the police officer securing a conviction against any person guilty of wilful damage to coin-in-the slot telephones, or of stealing money therefrom.

Owing to the increasing number of instances on which the cabinets are being put to improper and filthy use, the telephones are rendered unfit for conversation, and the public are complaining of their insanitary condition.

As the telephones serve a great public convenience in times of emergency, calls for a doctor, fires, &c., it is the endeavour of the Department to provide an efficient service, but its efforts are considerably hampered by the constantly occurring abuses to which both the telephones and cabinets are subjected. Any action on the part of your officers to assist the Department would be much appreciated.

Secretary.
