INQUIRIES, ETC., FROM OUTSIDE NEW ZEALAND.

MELBOURNE (VICTORIA).—English Scottish and Australian Bank defrauded. (See Police Gazette, 1924, page 6.) It is now believed by the Melbourne police that there was one man only operating the system in that city, and that between his visits to the different branches he altered his appearance by removing his glasses and toothbrush moustache. He gave the name Henry Charles Russell, and a warrant for his arrest has been issued. The following amended description of accused is supplied: Age about thirty, height about 5 ft. 10 in., medium build, sallow complexion, clean-shaved, but had slight growth of hair on face; dressed in a blue-grey suit, slate-coloured hat with light band, blue-striped soft shirt and collar, and long tie, and at one bank he wore glasses with chain over ear; very much tanned either by the sun or by some artificial means. He obtained from the Western Branch of the above bank a cheque-book containing sixty forms, starting with B103141. If located, communicate urgently with the Commissioner of Police, Wellington, in whose office a photographic copy of his handwriting is filed. (P 23/1730.)

EXTRACTS FROM NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE.

Regulations controlling the Admission of Persons to Middlemarch, South Bay (Marlborough), and Upper Clutha Racecourses.

(See New Zealand Gazette, 1924, pages 102 and 103.)

By-laws under Government Railways Act, 1908.

(See New Zealand Gazette, 1923, page 3008.)

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the Government Railways Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf, I, Joseph Gordon Coates, Minister of Railways, do hereby amend the by-laws made under the said Act on the 29th day of May, 1909, by making the following alterations therein:—

PART I. GENERAL.

By omitting by-law No. 5 (as amended on the 29th day of October, 1923), and substituting the following:—

"5. Every person before entering any carriage for the purpose of travelling on the railway shall procure a ticket entitling him to do so from the proper authority at the place for booking, specifying the class of carriage for which and the stations for conveyance between which the ticket is issued, and shall deliver the same up to any officer of the railway when so required by him; and no person shall use or attempt to use such ticket to travel on any part of the railway except on the direct route by railway between the stations named on such ticket."

Vehicles plying for Hire at Railway-stations.

By adding to paragraph (4) of by-law No. 43 the words—
"The following fees shall be payable for transferring licenses: For each temporary transfer, 2s. 6d.; for each permanent transfer, 5s. The period of a temporary transfer shall, except in special circumstances approved by the manager, not exceed one month."

By omitting paragraph (5) of by-law No. 43, and substituting the following:—

"(5.) The license fee payable in respect of every license shall be at the rate of £1 per annum, and shall be payable on the issue of the license."

PART V. REGULATION OF TRAFFIC OVER COMBINED ROAD AND RAILWAY BRIDGES.

By omitting by-law No. 54.

Given under my hand this 20th day of December, 1923.

J. G. COATES, Minister of Railways.
