"Motor-lorry" means any motor-vehicle as defined by the Motor-vehicles Act, 1924, used for hire or used for commercial purposes in the carriage of passengers or goods, and which with its maximum load exceeds two tons in weight; and includes tractors and steam-wagons; but does not include traction-engines:

"Steam-wagon" means any motor-lorry propelled by steam-power, which is primarily designed to carry a load of passengers or goods, exclusive of fuel or water for the use of the vehicle:

"Traction-engine" means any locomotive engine propelled by steam-power and designed for use on ordinary roads, but does not include steam-wagons, whether or not used for the purposes of traction:

"Trailer" means a vehicle without motive power designed solely or principally for the carriage of persons or goods, and drawn by a motor-vehicle other than a traction-engine."
