MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

Memorandum.]

"Red Cross" Emblem.

The Geneva Convention Act, 1911 (Imperial), which has been made applicable to New Zealand by Order in Council, published in New Zealand Gazette, 1913, pages 3210 and 3211, provides that it shall not be lawful for any person to use for the purposes of his trade or business or for any other purpose whatsoever, without the authority (in New Zealand) of the Minister of Defence, the heraldic emblem of the red cross on a white ground formed by reversing the Federal colours of Switzerland, or the words "Red Cross" or "Geneva Cross."

Members of the Force detecting any apparent breach of the Act are to report the circumstances through the usual channel to this office for direction as to any further action to be taken.

It will be observed that it is the use of the Red Cross emblem on a white ground that is unlawful; its use on any other coloured ground is not a breach of the Act.

W. B. McILVENEY, Commissioner of Police.

Importation of Certain Publications prohibited.

(See New Zealand Gazette, 1927, page 1617.)

Customs Department,
Wellington, 25th May, 1927.

It is hereby notified for public information that the importation of the publications shown in the list hereunder is regarded as being prohibited under the provisions of the Order in Council made on 10th May, 1921, and gazetted on 19th May, 1921, which prohibits the importation into New Zealand of the following goods, that is to say: Any document which incites, encourages, advises, or advocates violence, lawlessness, or disorder, or expresses any seditious intention.

The list includes only those publications which have been submitted to the Customs Department and which, after consideration by it, are regarded as infringing the above-mentioned Order in Council.

It should be understood that it does not follow that any document not mentioned in the list will be allowed to be imported. The onus rests on importers to avoid infringing the provisions of the Order in Council. If any person is in doubt as to whether any publication he desires to import is or is not regarded as prohibited from importation he should communicate with the Comptroller of Customs, Wellington.
