Memorandum.]

Vacancy for Officer in Charge of Police at Samoa.

Applications are invited from non-commissioned officers of the Force for the position of Officer in Charge of Police at Apia, Samoa. The duties attached to the position will cover the organization, administration, training, and discipline of the Police Force at Samoa, European and Native, and the prosecution of criminal cases before the Court.

The salary will be £600 per annum, which includes the usual tropical allowance of £120 per annum. No other allowances are payable. A house with the necessary heavy furniture is provided for which the occupant will be charged a rental of £54 per annum.

The successful applicant will be expected to remain at Samoa for a minimum period of three years. He will be on loan from the New Zealand Police Force, and will retain his seniority therein.

No member of the Force whose own health, or that of his wife or children, is not good, should apply.

Applications, which will be received up to 7th proximo, are to be forwarded through the Officer in Charge of the District, who will express his opinion as to the qualifications of the applicant for the position.

D. J. CUMMINGS, Commissioner of Police.

Wellington, 16th June, 1938.

Memorandum.]

Motor Accident Statistics.

The following copy of a memorandum received from the Commissioner of Transport is published for the information and attention of members of the Force when preparing motor accident report forms.

D. J. CUMMINGS, Commissioner of Police.
Wellington, 15th June, 1938. (P. 36/1431.)

MOTOR ACCIDENT STATISTICS.

In order to identify the individual accident prone drivers, I now wish to arrange for a record to be kept by the Transport Department of the names of all motor-drivers involved in accidents. Unfortunately, however, the accident report form does not now provide for this information. I should be glad therefore if you would co-operate in this matter by issuing instructions to all reporting officers to enter the full name of the driver of each motor-vehicle involved. The appropriate place for entering this information would appear to be in the blank space underneath item "(g) State whether Driver Licensed (Yes or No): " in Sections 4 and 5 on the form.

I should be grateful if this instruction could be given as early as possible in order to include the largest possible number of drivers involved.

A further point to which I should be pleased if you would draw the attention of reporting officers relates to Section 8—"Causes Attributed to Drivers." Items 4, 5, and 6 are designed to cover all cases of failure to keep to the left. Some reporting officers mark item 6 where the accident occurred at a bend, whereas either item 4 or 5 should be marked according to the circumstances. The common error is made of confining 4—"Cutting Corner" to accidents at intersections. This is intended to cover cases at bends in the road also. A large number of reports have lately been returned in connection with this point, and inconvenience to both Departments would be obviated if attention were given to this point by the reporting officer.

Another feature which has been noted in connection with the filling in of Section 8 is the tendency to enter "Rain" as a factor in causing the accident in every case where the weather was wet. While this Department has no means of checking the causes in respect of individual reports, it seems unlikely that weather would play such a vital part in causing accidents as the reports seem to indicate. The essential point in determining whether any particular item should be marked as a contributory cause of the accident is the answer to the query "would the accident have occurred if this circumstance was not present?" Only if the reporting officer considered that the accident would not have occurred otherwise, should the item be included, and vice versa. These remarks apply of course to all possible factors enumerated, not merely to the particular case of adverse weather conditions such as rain. I should be pleased if you would draw the attention of reporting officers to this point also.

Commissioner of Transport.
