57. (1) Except with the consent of the Governor-General in Council or as expressly provided in any Act other than this Act, no association of persons, whether a body corporate or not, shall exercise the functions for which it is formed under a name which—

- (a) Contains the word "Royal", or "Imperial", or "Parliament", or "National", or "State", or any word which suggests, or is calculated to suggest, the patronage of His Majesty or of any member of the Royal Family or connection with Parliament or with His Majesty's Government or any Department thereof; or
- (b) Contains the word "Municipal", or "Chartered", or suggests, or is calculated to suggest, connection with any municipality or other local authority, or with any society or body incorporated by Royal Charter; or
- (c) Contains the word "Bank", "Bankers", "Banking", "Co-operative", "Trust", or "Trustee", or the words "Stock Exchange".

(2) Where any Act provides for the registration of any association of persons, the registering authority may refuse registration if in its opinion the use of the name by which the association desires to be registered is prohibited by the last preceding subsection.

(3) The provisions of this section shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an individual carrying on business under any name or style other than his own.

(4) Any association or individual who does any Act in contravention of the provisions of this section commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty pounds.

(5) Nothing in this section shall apply to the use by any association or individual of any name that was in use in New Zealand by that association or individual on the passing of this Act.

This section and next three sections to form part of Police Offences Act, 1927.
