PINK OF FASHION

in his hall of state,
Triumphant tends the truly great;
Their soles he neatly does repair,
And kindly waits upon the fair.

Fair readers, have you not heard the news,
That either Fleming's Boots or Shoes
Surpass all others in Dunedin town
For which he wears King Crispin's crown.
His Wellingtons multitudes adorn—
His water-tights by crowds are worn;
His spring sides gracefully clasp the feet,
While his slippers are a perfect treat.
He's patronised by beau and belle,
For all his craft he does excel;
And not one with him can dare compete
In beautifying human feet.
His leather is good, his work is strong—
Perfect in art—you can't go wrong.
All competitors he can defy,
And on his taste you may rely.
So fair ones to him do wend your way,
And at his shrine your homage pay;
Then you will find, more than words can tell,
That Pink of Fashion will please you well.
