SATURDAY, 27th JULY,

At 2 o'clock.

TOWNSHIP OF BURKE'S BREWERY.

HENRY DRIVER

has received instructions to sell by auction, at Watson's Hotel, on Saturday, 27th July, at 2 o'clock, 50 Choice Sections in this township.

The survey of this well-known township is now completed, and the present sale embraces some of the choicest sections in the township.

Special attention is directed to these sections. They are charmingly situated, possess great natural advantages, and command magnificent and extensive views of the surrounding scenery, which is unsurpassed.

A well-graded road has been made, being one chain, (66ft.) in width, which runs through the property, the maximum gradient being not greater than parts of Princes-street, Dunedin; and it is formed to a width of 11ft., which renders it a very easy, accessible, and good road. No expense has been spared in its formation, for a distance of 25 chains, which gives access to the whole of the sections now offered for sale. It is proposed to continue the formation the entire length of the road.

The other roads through the property are all 80 links wide, and have been laid off to the best possible advantage.

Terms extremely liberal, viz.:—Deposit, £5 per section; balance by quarterly payments, extending over three years, with 8 per cent. interest added.

Lithographic plans now ready.
