DISPOSAL OF BUSINESS.

MR. T. J. LEARY respectfully wishes to inform the Inhabitants of Dunedin that he has disposed of his Old-established Business in Princes street to Mr. A. M. LOASBY, and whilst cordially thanking his numerous Customers for the Patronage they have so liberally bestowed on him in the past, would solicit for his successor a continuance of the same.

A. M. LOASBY,

Pharmaceutical and Family Chemist, having purchased, with one exception, the oldest Established Business in Dunedin, so long and successfully carried one by Mr. T. J. Leary, Princes street, would solicit a share of Public Patronage.

All latest Medicines and Patents will be added to stock as soon as possible.

In conclusion, he would inform the Public that civility and attention to smallest orders, moderate charges, and personal attention to business will always be found at his establishment.

A List of Proprietary Articles will shortly be published.
