ANSWER TO CORRESPONDENT.

"HORITIKA."-Sir Charles Gavan Duffy was arrested, in '48, and brought to trial three times. The Government were most anxious to secure his conviction, as they considered him the intellectual head of the movement, but the late Isaac Butt defended bim with such ability that in each instance the prosecution broke down, and finally the proceedings were abandoned.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

I'HE Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zesland Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children !!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder.

THE SITUATION.

UDGING from the letter of the Hon, the Treasurer to the people of Lawrence and the speech of the Premier at Balclutha, we think the Government is disposed to inaugurate a spirited policy calculated to lead on to a new era of prosperity.

And there can be little doubt that Sir Julius Vocal would, if public opinion permitted him, soon develope a scheme which would lay the foundation of another period of progress. He is an able politician, and a statesman of immense intellectual resources, financially, politically, and socially. A great deal, to be sure, has been said of late about the indebtedness of the Colony. But everyone who is dispassionate, and capable of forming a sound ju igment on the question, knows that the present depression does not arise from indebtedness, but from the low prices of produce, and the impossibility of finding a good market for our wheat, oats, wool and meat. And were it not for the policy recommended by Sir Julius Vogel in 1870, the depression of which everyone is now complaining would be deeper and more harassing. In fact, if this policy had not been adopted, our position would now be a poor one indeed. But it is objected that, to carry out Sir Julius' policy as shadowed forth in his letter to the Lawrence people, additional taxation will be necessary. This is a gratuitous assertion. No additional taxation is necessary. At the present moment, notwithstanding the depression, multitudes of people are making money. The deposits in our various banks prove this
