MRS. SILK ... PROPRIETRESS

The Proprietress deems it quite unnecessary to advertise terms, as they are well-known all over this and other colonies, together with the fact that every effort is made to study the comfort and convenience of her Guests, and that a table is always kept not to be excelled, if equalled, in New Zealand for the price charged.

IN Notifying the REMOVAL of the Business to his new premises in Manor street, JOHN DRUMM has to acknowledge the patronage accorded him by owners and breeders of superior horses during the past 16 years. As an expert in horseshoeing, and at no recent date, the following certificate will show:—"Mr. John Drumm. Sir,—I have to certify that yourself and partner won three first prizes for horseshoeing when I was secretary of the Port Phillip Farmers' Society, Melbourne. On two of the occasions Messrs John Tait and Ed. de Mestre, the well-known horseowners, were the judges.—(Signed) ARTHUR SKILLING." N.B.—Trotting Horses Shod on the American principle; toe weights made and adjusted.
