

WAKATIPU FLOUR AND OATMEAL MILLS,
LAKE HAYES.
(Between Arrowtown and Queenstown.)

THOMAS MURRAY, having purchased the above Mill, which is now in full working order, being lately fitted with new machinery of the latest and most approved pattern, and having secured the services of a first-class miller, is now in a position to execute orders for Flour, Oatmeal, Bran, Pollard, etc.
Cash Buyer of Wheat and Oats. Highest Prices given.

J O H N P. H A Y E S
Has commenced the Practice of his Profession as a
S O L I C I T O R A N D C O N V E Y A N C E R.
Bank of Australasia Buildings.
Corner of BOND and BATTRAY STREETS, DUNEDIN.

H I B E R N I A C A T H O L I C B O O K D E P O T,
67, CUBA STREET, WELLINGTON,
Late Rive's, Draper, and opposite the White Swan Hotel.

M. DENNEHY begs to announce to the public that he has commenced business in the above spacious premises in Cuba-street, as CATHOLIC BOOKSELLER,
STATIONER,
FANCY GOODS,
ART NEEDLEWORK,
TOBACCOS, &c., &c.

And begs to assure those who will honour him with their patronage that it will be his constant aim to supply the BEST and NEWEST Novelties at a small profit on the imported cost, which will mean fully 25 per cent. saved on the present ruling prices in this city.

INSPECTION CORDIALLY INVITED.

Opening Day—SATURDAY, 15th December.

M. DENNEHY,
HIBERNIA CATHOLIC BOOK DEPOT,
67, CUBA STREET, WELLINGTON.

I R I S H N A T I O N A L L E A G U E.
WILLIAM O'BRIEN BRANCH.

LOWER HUTT.

£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
Rev. J. Cane	2	8	0	Mr. E. De Rosa	0 15 0
Mr. C. E. Bunny	1	7	0	" W. Nolan	0 14 0
" T. Minogue	1	7	0	" E. Hayes	0 14 0
" J. Galvin	1	5	0	" J. Buckley	0 10 0
" B. McMannus	0	18	0	" J. O'Sullivan	0 7 0
" M. Small	0	17	0	" F. Coleman	0 7 0
" P. Walsh	0	17	0	Mrs. Downey	0 6 0
" J. Cavanagh	0	17	0	Mr. J. Farley	0 6 0
" J. Lynch	0	16	0	" J. Connolly	0 5 0
" P. Toomey	0	16	0	" J. Hayes	0 2 0
" P. Farley	0	16	0	" P. O. Sullivan	0 1 0
" M. Galvin	0	16	0

PETONE.

Mr. E. Byrne	1	8	0	Mr. J. Coniff	0 2 0
" J. Coniff	0	17	0	" P. Bouland	0 2 0
" J. Padden	0	17	0	" W. Patterson	0 2 0
" M. Carr	0	16	0	" J. Gaynor	0 2 0
" J. McGill	0	16	0	" J. Ryan	0 1 0
" D. McGill	0	10	0

UPPER HUTT.

Mr. O. O'Connell	1	0	0	Mrs. Williams	0 10 0
" J. Small (Silver Stream)	1	0	0	Mr. M. Cronin (Summit)	0 10 0
" J. Walsh	0	10	0	" F. Paul	0 5 0
" J. Harley	0	10	0	" Fitzpatrick	0 5 0
" T. Twoomey	1	0	0	Mrs. Haghan	0 2 0
" W. Neazor	0	10	0	Mr. Haghan	0 2 0

TAWA FLAT.

Mr. J. Moore	0	10	0	Mr. T. Boyce	0 5 0
" M. Jordan	0	5	0

PLUMMBERTON.

Mr. Miskell 0 5 0

WELLINGTON.

Rev. Father Moore 0 2 0

SKIPPER.

Mr. T. P. Monk	2	2	0	" J. Hayes	0 10 0
" Cummins and O'Neil	1	10	0	" T. Cotter	0 10 0
" T. Connell	1	1	0	" J. Gemmell	0 10 0
" J. Costello	1	0	0	" G. H. Boyd	0 10 0
" M. Dwan	1	0	0	" J. Potter	0 10 0
" N. McInnes	0	10	0	" P. Conely	0 10 0
" J. Bordeau	0	10	0	" T. O'Connor	0 5 0
" M. Beilly	0	10	0	" D. L. O'Connor	0 5 0
" P. Lynch	0	10	0	" H. W. Wittchell	0 10 0

WANTED TO EXCHANGE Land and House between Dunedin and Ocean Beach for Country Property. Boys and Girls of Family can learn Good Trade in Advertiser's Establishment in Town.—Address

"EXCHANGE,"

TABLET Office.

WANTED.—An experienced female School TEACHER. Must be able to play Harmonium. Address, with Copies of Testimonials, to

"SCHOOL,"

TABLET Office.

The New Zealand Tablet.

FIAT JUSTITIA.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1888.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

THE Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. Yet such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zealand Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children !!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder.

T I M E S C H A N G E D.

R. GLADSTONE'S declaration at Limehouse in favour of triennial Parliaments would gladden the heart of FERGUS O'CONNOR were he now alive. This was one of the points of the Charter for which he and his fellow-Chartists contended so warmly, and on account of which he and they suffered so much. Time brings with it the revenge of the advocates of popular rights. The most powerful politician in the Empire now declares himself in favour of that for which both political parties in England prosecuted FERGUS and his associates. What they saw so clearly to be necessary, the march of events has brought clearly home to the leader of a great party and to his entire party. No doubt the next session of Parliament will see the enacting of triennial Parliaments, and this will put an end to Governments depending entirely on Parliamentary majorities, although in a minority in the country. At the present moment it is not the majority of the country which decides legislation, but the representatives of two aristocratic houses, so that the will of the nation is overriden by two men—the one more remarkable for a richly-offensive vocabulary than for anything else; the other conspicuous for nothing so much as a stolid mediocrity: SALISBURY and HARTINGTON—the one the leader of the old-fashioned Tories, the other of the fantastic Liberal-Unionists. These two men dominate their followers, so that, in reality, the present legislation of England, and its present policy at home and abroad are shaped altogether, or nearly so, according to the views of two men, neither of them remarkable for breadth of view or wisdom. And these are retained in power by men who, fearing their constituencies, avail themselves of the Septennial Act to keep in power a party which is, according to the evidence of recent elections, in a miserable minority in the country. This state of things proves the necessity of a Triennial Act, which will prevent for all time a repetition of such a scandal in a country where representative institutions exist. No doubt the last general elections gave SALISBURY and HARTINGTON a majority between them, but it has become sufficiently apparent since that the country now repents of its action on that occasion and would, had it now an opportunity, reverse its verdict. But this cannot be; for, whilst the country has changed its mind, the majority in Parliament has not; and this majority, knowing that a new general election would give them a short shrift, hold grimly to their seats in the hope that during the