

NOTICE.

THE Parish Priest of Christchurch, whilst returning thanks for subscriptions handed him during the past years, would respectfully remind those who kindly promised him contributions towards various parochial works, that he relied on those subscriptions when undertaking—

1. The enlarging and beautifying of the Church of the Most Blessed Sacrament.
2. The building of St. Joseph's School-chapel, Papanui
3. The enlarging of St. Agnes' School-chapel, Halswell.
4. The enlarging of the Boys' and Girls' Parish Schools.
5. The opening of a Select High School for boys.
6. The building of the Presbytery.
7. The Erection of the Organ; and
8. The Purchasing of Six Sites of Land for Churches and Schools.

Subscriptions sent to the Parish Priest will be devoted to any of the above works, according to the wish of the subscriber.

SECULARIZED.

HE wires have flashed throughout the world the intelligence that the French Jesuits have secularised their schools and come to an agreement with the French Republican Government on the basis of secularism, by means of which their schools and colleges will be kept open. This intelligence has been variously interpreted. To give a resumé of these interpretations would serve no useful purpose, and would satisfy no legitimate curiosity. And, at all
