THE OAMARU CONVENT SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

TO THE EDITOR OF NEW ZEALAND TABLET.

SIR,—The Dominican nuns of Dunedin, ever actively devoted to the promotion of Christian education, are making immediate preparations for opening a branch of their Order in Oamaru. On the 7th May, the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Moran, laid the foundation-stone of convent school buildings. The ceremony and the whole proceedings were most satisfactory and successful. The Bishop, always active and generous in the cause of education, gave his name for £100, and other kind and good friends seconded his efforts in the work he so much loves, in a way that excited the admiration of all. And it is confidently hoped that many more well-wishers will come forward with generous contributions for the works now being carried on.

One of the greatest works of charity is the promotion of Christian education. It is in these days for every Catholic an open profession of faith; for the generous and good of every class and creed it is a profession of real benevolence and admiration for those who, like the Catholics, are nobly striving to obey the dictates of conscience under many difficulties, and are persevering in their efforts to make the youth, and consequently the people, of this bountiful and beautiful land of ours, an educated, pure-minded, patriotic, and God-loving nation.

Any contribution set to Archdeacon Coleman, Oamaru, the Dominican nuns, or the Most Rev. Dr. Moran, Dunedin, will be gratefully acknowledged in the TABLET.—I am, yours truly,

WM. COLEMAN
