HOW ARE YOUR POOR FEET?

Why do you complain of Corns when a Shilling Bottle of Callosine will remove them.
Read the following letter:—

Maryhill Terrace, Mornington, 5th February, 1894.

Mr Thom's Johnstone, Manse street,
Dear Sir,—I can testify to the genuineness of your Callosine as a cure for Corns, as it has proved successful in thoroughly removing two very obstinate ones from my feet without any pain or inconvenience. Trusting you may meet with every success with your genuine cure.—I remain, gratefully yours, M. A. WALTERS.

Callosine may be had, Post Free, on receipt of One Shilling in stamps, from the Sole Manufacturer and Proprietor,
THOMAS JOHNSTONE,
