ANSWER TO CORRESPONDENT.

"LAUDER."—We could not take notice of the case without full information. A letter by an anonymous writer in a local paper, sent anonymously to us, was not sufficient. We might have done more harm than good by taking up the matter. If "one of the public" or someone else will furnish us with reliable particulars—names and dates—we shall not be found wanting.

FIAT JUSTITIA.

FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1894.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

THE Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. Yet such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zealand Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children!!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder.
