DUNEDIN HORSE SALEYARDS.
MESSESS WRIGHT, STEPHENSON AND Co. report as follows:—
 No doubt owing to the stormy weather and to the fact that no country horses were advertised, there was a very small attendance at our sale on Saturday. The demand was, in consequence, very slack for both draughts and light-harness horses; but privately during the week we have had a number of inquiries for both descriptions. First-class draughts (extra heavy), L25 to L30; good ordinary draughts (young), L18 to L22; medium draughts, L12 to L16; aged draughts, L6 to L10; good backs and harness horses, L12 to L16; medium do, L7 to L9; light and inferior do, L2 10s to L5.

MR F. MEENAN, King street, reports:—Wholesale price only—
Oats: feed, 1s 3d to 1s 5d; seed, 1s 7d. Wheat: Milling, 2s 9d to 3s; fowls' wheat, 2s 0d to 2s 6d. Chaff: Inferior to medium, 30s to 45s; good to prime, £2 5s to £2 15s 0d. Hay: Oats, £3; ryegrass, £2 5s. Potatoes: seed kidneys, £2 10s; derwents, 30s to 35s. Flour: Stone, £6 10s to £7 0s; roller, £7 to £7 15s. Oatmeal, 25lbs, £8 10s; bulk, £8. Butter, fresh, 7d to 10d. salt, 7d, fair demand. Eggs, 6d per dozen (fair supply.)

WELLINGTON STOCK, HORSE, AND PRODUCE MARKET.
A. G. TAINE, and Co, report on the markets for August 23:—
Fat Sheep—Demand still good for prime sorts, heavy wethers up to 17s 6d; good, 14s to 16s; light, 11s 6d to 12s 6d; fat ewes, 12s 6d to 13s 6d for good weights.
Store Wethers—11s to 13s for very fresh; ordinary, 9s 6d to 10s 6d. Ewes in lamb, a good enquiry, and we have sold at 8s to 8s 6d; young ewes in lamb, 10s to 11s 6d, all good quality. Hoggets, have placed all offering, and demand for more at up to 9s 6d for good lots, 6s to 7s for medium.
Fat Cattle—We can place all offering at market values, and quote, prime beef, 20s to 21s per 100 lbs.
Store Cattle—All coming forward are selling freely, now that the late fine weather has caused the grass to spring. Weaners, 17s 6d; yearlings, 40s, two-year-old steers, L3; three-year-olds, L4 to L4 15s.
Dairy Cows—Still a good demand for young cows, and even aged cows are selling freely if just calved or close to calving. Aged, L5 to L5 10s; young, L7 to L8 10s.
Horses—We held our usual weekly horse sale last Saturday, good attendance, and moderate entry. For good express and light harness horses there was a fair demand. No draughts were entered, but a few buyers were in the yard. The few sales were unimportant. We quote, good heavy draughts, L19 to L22; medium, L14 to L16; good express horses, active, and with some weight, L12 to L15; aged sorts, L6 to L10.
Sheepskins—The late favourable weather has brought new demand, and we can now place all coming forward at better prices.
Tallow—18s to 20s for best; medium, 15s to 16s.
Wheat—Fowl wheat, 2s 6d to 2s 9d.
Oats—Quiet, 1s 9½ to 1s 10½d for best. We sold a line of off colour by auction at 1s 7d (bags extra).
Potatoes—Plentiful supply, slack demand, market falling.
Property—We have enquiries for bakers' businesses, also for hotels, and have some sales pending.

Mr Crannitch's Hibernian Hotel, Timaru, offers excellent accommodation to boarders and visitors. The house is admirably managed, and nothing is left undone to insure the comfort of those who patronise it.

IRISH NATIONAL FEDERATION.

The following letter, addressed by Mr M. Bohan, Wellington, to Mr Laurence Power, Waikawa, Southland, explains itself:—
 Wellington, 27th August, 1894.

Dear Sir,—With the greatest of pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst with the enclosed Post Office order towards the Irish National Federation fund, and also your patriotic expressions therein. I hope through your exertions we will receive more P.O. orders from your district. As I am sure you will agree with me, now for the last time, I hope every true liberal-minded man, but Irishmen and Welshmen in particular, will be up and doing to help on that great cause of Home Rule for Ireland, our dear native land, that land which so many of our ancestors laid down their lives in trying to maintain as a nation, which she is justly entitled to be. Therefore we, as exiles the world over, should now come forward at this particular and critical time and generously help those who are gallantly fighting our country's cause. A dissolution may occur at any moment, and then a general election. We know well the enemies of our country's cause are all powerful in wealth and money, which go far towards success at elections. The leaders of our country's cause are poor, none of them wealthy, and what will be the result if we Irishmen and women the world over, don't subscribe liberally and support those gallant men who are fighting the cause of our native land? Let us now come forward, supply the funds that will enable our great leaders at this election to contest every constituency in Ireland, and also help those Liberate of England, Scotland, and Wales. Then they will come back all powerful to the Imperial House of Parliament and grant Home Rule to Ireland in its true meaning, a Parliament in College Green, with the green flag flying over it. We, as exiles, will then feel proud that we gave our mite to help to achieve that glorious victory, the object of our heart, a Parliament to justly legislate for that dear old land, and once more make her what she is justly entitled to be, "first flower of the earth, first gem of the sea."

Hoping to hear soon from you, I enclose membership card and circular, showing the objects of our Society.—I am, etc,
 M. BOHAN.

OBITUARY.

(From the Wellington Post)

We regret to hear of the death of Rev Father Landouar, S.M., late of Nelson, which took place on Monday morning, August 27, at the Presbytery, Boulcott street. The deceased, who was a native of Brittany, France, arrived here in 1887, and since that time he had been assistant priest to the Very Rev Father Mahoney, S.M., at Nelson where he was universally esteemed, not only by his own people but by all classes of the community. Father Landouar was never very strong, being a sufferer from consumption. Lately the doctors of Nelson advised him to take a change. He came over to Wellington about four weeks ago, but although every care has been taken since his arrival, he gradually sank, and expired in his 36th year. The funeral obsequies took place on Wednesday morning in St Mary of the Angels' Church, Boulcott street. A solemn requiem Mass was celebrated, the celebrant being Very Rev Father Devoy, S.M., V.G.; Rev Father De Lach, S.M., deacon; Rev Father Doherty, S.M., sub-deacon; and the Rev Father Goggan, S.M., master of ceremonies. The Mass in the choir was sung by the Fathers from St Patrick's College, assisted by Rev Fathers Dawson and Patterson, and Mr R. A. Loughnan. In the sanctuary were his Grace the Archbishop, Very Rev Dr Watters, S.M., Very Rev Father Mahoney, S.M. (Nelson), Rev Father O'Hallahan (Kumara), and Rev Fathers Lane and Donnelly (Hutt). There was a large congregation present. Several wreaths were sent over from Nelson, amongst them a beautiful one from the Mayor. At the end of the Mass his Grace the Archbishop preached a touching and eloquent panegyric on the virtuous and zealous life of the good priest, whose mortal remains lay before them in the church. He exhorted all to take a lesson from the ceremonies of that morning and prepare for a happy death by imitating the virtues of the deceased. His Grace then gave the last absolution, and the funeral cortege started for Karori Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs M. Kennedy, R. P. Collins, J. Gallagher and O'Connell. Several members of the Hibernian Society formed a guard of honour. A number of pupils from St Patrick's College, and from the Marist Brothers' School walked in the procession. Very Rev Father Mahony, S.M. (Nelson), read the burial service at the grave, and when he had finished he returned [thanks to all for the great kindness and respect shown to his late beloved friend and confrere. The remains of the late Father Landouar were interred beside those of Father Carolan, S.M.—R.I.P.]

The memory of the late Very Rev Father Kerrigan, for 14 years in charge of Te Aro Parish, is to be perpetuated by the erection of two stained glass windows in the sanctuary of St Joseph's Church, Buckle street. The Vicar-General (Very Rev Father Devoy) is to procure various designs and submit them to a committee of parishioners.
