ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE is intended to afford the youth of New Zealand a sound liberal education, whilst furnishing all those safeguards of religion, without which education ceases to be an advantage.

The course of education, classical, scientific, and mercantile, is traced in the programme of studies.

A special course is provided, in which students are taught everything needful for mercantile pursuits.

Students are prepared for Civil Service, Law, University, and Musical Examinations.

A large and well-appointed gymnasium has been added to the College, giving the students facility for developing muscular power.

A select library is at the disposal of the students during the hours set apart for reading.

Vacation is given twice a year, in June and December.

One term's notice is required before the withdrawal of a student. The religious education of the student will be attended to as a matter of the first and greatest importance.

'Where do you get your Boots and Shoes?' Said Mrs. Smith one day, Unto her neighbour Mrs. Jones, Just in a friendly way. They last as long again as mine, And always look so neat; They seem to fit you like a glove, So nice they suit your feet." I always buy from Loft and Co," Mrs. Jones did then reply, The reason that I buy from them I now will tell you why.	You see they understand their trade And buy for ready cash Just nothing but the best of goods, And never worthless trash. I used to buy from other shops But found it did not pay; The soles too quickly did wear out, Or else the tops gave way." So if you want good Boots and Shoes, That give good honest wear, Just go direct to Loft and Co. And you will get them there
