FIAT JUSTITIA.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1890.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

THE Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. Yet such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zealand Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children!!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder.

THE ONTARIO SYSTEM.

LAST week we drew attention to the system of education prevailing in the Dominion of Canada. In principle this system is the same in all the Provinces of the Dominion; but in details there are some differences as regards the various provinces. The principle everywhere recognised and acted upon everywhere, is that all the children of the Dominion shall be educated, that there shall be everywhere a National system, that all shall be treated alike and with absolute justice and fair play, and that no one shall be compelled to contribute to a system which his conscience forbids him to accept. These are the principles on which public education in the Dominion of Canada rests. In the working out of these principles there is variety in detail in the several provinces. In the province of Quebec, for example, the system is denominational, but the principles above enumerated are kept in view, and realised to the fullest extent. Here Catholics have their own schools, and Protestants have their own schools, all equally supported and fostered by the State. In this province Catholics are in an overwhelming majority, nevertheless they enjoy no advantage over their Protestant fellow subjects in any way. There is
