Why buy a small bottle of Lea and Perrin's Sauce when you can buy a large bottle of Gawne's Worcestershire Sauce of equal quality, and nearly double the quantity, for about half the price.

Have you tasted Gawne's Worcestershire Sauce? It is one of the Cheapest Sauces made, but is of Excellent quality. In fact, Gawne's Sauce is second to none in the market, and about half the price of English. It has a peculiar Rich and Piquancy; is a thorough Appetiser and Tonic, and will agree with the most Delicate Stomach. Gawne's Worcestershire Sauce is all that the most exacting connoisseur could wish, and should find a place in every household.

FIAT JUSTITIA.

FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1891.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

The Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. Yet such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zealand Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children!!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder

STRIKES AND THE LABOUR QUESTION.

THESE are interesting and perplexing questions, on which a great deal may be said, and has been said. It is so now, has been so in the past, and in all probability will be so in the future. We are not silly enough to flatter ourselves that anything we can advance will settle these questions, or, indeed, that we have acquired the right understanding of them, or possess the key to their solution. But there are certain points in reference to matters of fact so far as the present is concerned on which we may be permitted to say a word or two. Strikes and unions seem to be the fashion just now, and we are of opinion that instead of settling these knotty questions, their only effect will be to aggravate the evils they are intended to redress. Capital can, as it were, retire within its own boundaries and live, but labour, without capital,
