FIAT JUSTITIA.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1892.

PROGRESS AND JUSTICE IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

The Catholics of New Zealand provide, at their own sole expense, an excellent education for their own children. Yet such is the sense of justice and policy in the New Zealand Legislature that it compels these Catholics, after having manfully provided for their own children, to contribute largely towards the free and godless education of other people's children!!! This is tyranny, oppression, and plunder.

AT SEA WITHOUT COMPASS.

HE newspaper war against Bishop MORAN continues, and a most remarkable feature in this warfare is the similarity that prevails throughout the various leaders in which he is assailed. Indeed, this similarity is so striking that one is almost forced to conclude that it is the same hand that writes them all, so that the opposition he encounters is the active opposition of one man. No one, we think, who has read recent leaders in the Otago Daily Times, Dunedin Evening Star, and the Mataura Ensign, can fail to have been struck by the uniformity of argument, diction, and style clearly manifest in these leaders. This, however, by the way; our business is to look out for a grain of reason and argument, if such can be found in these writings; and, after diligent search, very little indeed of either is to be discovered. According to these leaders, Bishop MORAN is a faddist, is pursuing a fad, is a tyrant, is regardless of political considerations, and bent on forwarding only one idea, and is provoking a block vote in opposition to his views.
