

A Sixteenth Century Bible

The most beautiful volume among the half million in the Congressional Library at Washington is a Bible which was transcribed by a monk in the sixteenth century (says the 'New York Press'). It could not be matched to-day in the best printing office in the world. The parchment is in perfect preservation. Every one of its thousand pages is a study. The general lettering is in German text, each letter perfect, without a scratch or blot from lid to lid. At the beginning of each chapter the first letter is very large, usually two or three inches long, and is brightly illuminated in red and blue ink. Within each of these capitals is drawn the figure of some saint, some incident of which the chapter tells. There are two columns in a page, and nowhere is traceable the slightest irregularity of line spaces or formation of the letters. Even under a magnifying glass they seem flawless. This precious volume is kept under a glass case, which is sometimes lifted to show that all the pages are as perfect as the two which lie open.

With the advent of spring Messrs. Herbert, Haynes, and Co., Dunedin, are showing a magnificent selection of reasonable novelties, all the departments being fully furnished with the latest productions of the world's factories. The firm's display of furniture, bedsteads, bedding, carpets, linoleums, etc., is very complete, and the goods are quoted at prices which ought to satisfy intending purchasers.
