DIOCESE OF CHRISTCHURGA

(From our own correspondent)

October 2

The first distribution of prizes in connection with the Cathedral Christian doctine classes is fixed for Sunday next.

The Rev Father McDonald, of St. Marys, Manchester St., who, I regret to state, has been in bad health of late, has gone to Wanganui on sick leave. The Rev Father O'Connell, having completed his labors in the inferests of the Cathodial fund syspencea-week collections in the centre of the city, commences this week his visituation of the Sydenham portion of the parish.

The annual collection in aid of the diocesan chart-ties Iwas made on Sunday At the Cathedral the Very Rev Father Le Menant des Chesnais, V.G., made an eloquent appeal on behalf of Mount Magdala Asylum, which at the present time contains alout 150 inneates, the adjoining Sacred Theart Orphanage having 45 children.

The Rev Father O'Connell, who recently made a tour of the Hawarden parochial district, was much more a mode a market of the control of the control

Very pretty and nicely equipped churches meet the requirements at Cheviot, Hammer, and Waiau, whilst at Hawarden itself almost everything needful is supplied. The pastor, the Rev. Father Price, is due to arrive back in the Colony from his trip home on October 9.

The fifth annual meeting of the Oatholic Club took place last evening, Mr. J. R. Hayward presiding over the attendace. The committee's report stated that the club had undoubtedly had the most successful year since its inauguration. The club was in a thoroughly sound financial position, thanks to the secretary, Mr. G. Dobbs, and the committee was convinced that, under capable management, it was certain to go ahead with leaps and bounds and become convinced that, under capable management, it was certain to go ahead with leaps and bounds and become an up-to-date Catholic club, second to none in the Colony There were 61 financial members. The balance of assets over liabilities stood at £103 12s 10d, and there was a credit balance of £1 1s 7d on the profit and loss account, after deducting £10 15s for overline subscriptions and writing off £10 18s for depreciation of the billiard table and furniture. A number of socials, concerts, and lectures had been successfully given, and there had been an interesting debate. The incoming commuttee was urged to try and foster these styles of entertainment and enlightenment. The committee expressed regret at the retirement of Mr. R. O Duncan from the active management of the Club, and also at the departure of Mr. J. F. Shanley. The thanks of the club were due to Messis. L. Birks, P. Pender, and G. R. Hart, for lectures, to Mr. H. Rossiter for his services as musical director, and to Bishop Grimes and the clergy, especially the Rev. Father Malhony, and Sir George Clifford for assistance of various kinds. The balance sheet stated that the receipts had amounted to $105 8s 5d, and the expenditure had been £85 9s ld. The report and balance sheet were adouted, on the motion of Mr. Rossiter, seconded by the Rev. Father Malhony, who said that he was very much in favor of having a literary side to the club, and he would recommend that this be one of the first considerations of the incoming executive committee. A special vote of thanks was accorded the NZ. Tablet and local press for reports. The election of officers resulted as follows:—President, Mr. J. R. Hayward, vice-presidents, Messis. M. O'Rielly, H. Rossiter and G. Dobbs; executive committee, Nessis. J. Chase, Beveridge, D. Edmonds, D. O'Connell, and J. Cromin, treasurer, Mr. W. Hayward, jun.

In the Catholic portion of Linwood Cemetery and over-shadowed by the great pines which surround it, there is a plot reserved as the last resting place of the religious of Our Lady of Missions. Some few months ago a small number of laymon of the Cathedral parish took upon themselves the duty, as a tribute of the love, respect, and veneration held for the Sisters, to enclose their hittle God's acre, and erect of the billiard table and furniture. A number of so-edual parish took upon themselves the duty, as a tribute of the love, respect, and veneration held for the sisters, to enclose their little 'God's acre,' and erect in its midst a mute, yet eloquent memorial. The enclosure consists of a concrete foundation, surmounted with an iron railing. From the centre of the plot there rises a massive Latin cross from a pedestal of five tiers, all of white stone. Carved in the centre of the cross is the emblem I H S, with the words, 'Religious of Our Lady of the Missions' at the base. On the topmost tier is inscribed the name of Rev. Mother St. Therese, Vicar-Provincial; on the segund tier, the topmost tier is inscribed the name of Rev. Mother St. Therese, Vicai-Provincial; on the second tier, Sister Mary St. Joachim and Sister Mary St. Thomas, on the third, Sister Mary St. Sophia and Sister Mary St. Brendan. Inlaid in the centre of the bottom tier agreeats, 'Requiescat in pace'. As an appreciation, the following letter has just been received from the superior-General. renor-General

Deal, July 26, 1905.

Grutlemen,—On reading Mother M. St. Philomena's er I felt that I should write to you personally to express my deepest gratitude in acknowledgment of the express my deepest gratitude in acknowledgment of the express my deep state of the expression of the expression of the expression of the expression of the many instance. tes of your kind-hearted benevolence, the one which touched me most profoundly was the thoughtful and delicate attention you have had in enclosing our Sisters' harving ground and erecting the symbol of our ters' harving ground and erecting the symbol of our noty Fatth over their last resting place. When the photo was unfolded the sight of their graves caused as a ditter pang, for it decaded the memory of those departed ones, who had left all near and dear to them to labor for God's glory in a distant land. Nevertheless is an unspeakable joy to think they spent themselves amongst a people unsurpassed for generosity and chlowed with the most noble sentiments of fixelity and gratitude. I am sure our dear Sisters, who are lying under the shadow of the Cross, are mindful of their benefactors and will obtain for you many graces before the throne of God. At the mother house we have placed you amidst our most special friends and benefactors, and daily prayers are offered up also in each of our convents to obtain the choicest blessings for two is 20 s, and your dear families. Having been faithful through life to the precepts of Him Who first hore the Cross, may you reap, both here and hereafter, the magnificent reward promised to the faithful servant.

Renewing the expression of my most sincere grati-tude for all your kindness, both past and present, to-wards our Sisters—I remain, Yours very sincerely in J C.

MARIE DU ST. ROSAIRE, Superior-General.

'The publication of an advertisement in a Catholic paper shows that the advertiser not only desires the patronage of ('atholics, but pays them the compliment of seeking it through the medium of their own religious journal.' So says an esteemed and wide-awake American contemporary. A word to the wise is sufficient.
