

The coffin was carried from the church through a vast concourse of people by the Hibernians, who acted as pall-bearers. The procession, one of the largest seen here, then wended its way to Karori, where a most impressive service was held. His Grace officiated at the graveside, and was assisted by a large body of the clergy. His Lordship Bishop Lenihan and Monsignor Mackay were present.—R.I.P.

Feeling reference (writes our Christchurch correspondent) was made by his Lordship the Bishop in the Cathedral on Sunday to the lamented death of the Very Rev. Father Lewis, S.M., Vicar-General of Wellington. The archdiocese of Wellington (said his Lordship) is mourning the loss of its Vicar-General, who was well and favorably known not alone in the diocese of Christchurch, where he labored with zeal and true devotion, but throughout New Zealand. He was a man of lively faith, most strictly attached to his priestly calling, and to the discharge of his administrative duties. Firm and steadfast in his convictions, he was yet most gentle in enforcing his desires. He was so characteristically noted for suavity and refinement of manner that his motto might fittingly be, 'Fortiter in re suaviter in modo.' Whilst extending to the Archbishop, priests, and people of Wellington the assurance of their deep sorrow and sympathy, they must not be unmindful of the dear departed in their prayers.

TEMUKA

(From our own correspondent.)

Word has been received here from the Rev. Father Goggan to the effect that his health is showing signs of improvement since his stay in the north. His many friends will be glad to hear this news, and trust that he will soon again be restored to perfect health, and thus continue to carry on the good works he has so ably commenced.

The weekly meeting of the Temuka Catholic Club was held on Tuesday evening last, when the Rev. Father Bell (who is assisting the Rev. Father Kerley during the absence of Father Goggan) entertained the members with a reading from Shakespeare. The rev. gentleman chose for his subject 'Hamlet.' At the close of the programme, which was both interesting and instructive, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Rev. Father Bell.

I regret to record the death of Mrs. P. Connell, which took place at her residence, Levels Plains, on Saturday evening last. The deceased had been ill for a long time, and though her death was not unexpected, nevertheless it came as a severe shock to her relatives and friends. The funeral took place on Monday, and was one of the largest seen in the district. The Rev. Father Kerley officiated at the graveside. The deceased leaves a husband and a family of three sons and five daughters to mourn their loss, and for whom great sympathy is felt.—R.I.P.

WEDDING BELLS

WARREN—MILLIGAN.

A very pretty wedding (writes a correspondent) took place at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Denniston, on June 12, the contracting parties being Miss Sarah Milligan, third daughter of Mr. N. Milligan, of Denniston, and Mr. John Warren, second son of Mr. W. Warren, Kumara, Westland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Bergin, who celebrated a Nuptial Mass. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty navy blue costume, with a spray of orange blossom and hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Molly Milligan. Both bride and bridesmaid carried ivory-bound prayer books, gifts of the bride's mother. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a handsome dress-ring, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. The bride's present to the bridegroom was a set of gold sleeve links. Mr. George Foreman acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's 'Wedding March,' played by Miss Agnes Milligan, and proceeded to the residence of the bride's parents, where the wedding breakfast was served. The toast of the 'Bride and bridegroom' was proposed by the Rev. Father Bergin. Other toasts were also duly honored. In the evening the happy couple left by special coach for Westland, where they were to spend their honeymoon. Both bride and bridegroom were the recipients of a very large number of handsome presents.

IT ALL . . .
DEPENDS

—Upon what you want it for? If you want flannel that is absolutely free from cotton and is made from the purest of wool; flannel that is hygienic and warm; flannel that is lasting and with but a minimum of shrinkableness, then you will certainly buy "MOSGIEL". It is different from a "few" other flannels! "MOSGIEL" is an honest all-wool flannel!

Commercial

PRODUCE

Messrs. Stronach, Morris, and Co. report:—
Wheat.—Owing to the cables from Home prices have hardened, as the millers say that they are losing money on every ton of flour they produce. They are just buying from hand to mouth, and will not offer for lines of any size. Prices have hardened, but millers are holding off and will not offer at present more than from 4s 2d to 4s 3d at country stations. Farmers are still holding for higher prices, and business is only resulting in speculators' lines. Best seed brings from 4s 9d to 5s; prime milling, 4s 4d to 4s 7d (ex store); medium and best whole fowl wheat, 3s 11d to 4s 3d.

Oats.—The oat market is still very firm, although not much business is passing. Seed lines are most inquired for, but there is also some little demand for feed oats. Prime milling, 3s to 3s 2d; good to best feed, 2s 11d to 3s 1 1/2d; inferior to medium, 2s 8d to 2s 10 1/2d per bushel (sacks extra).

Potatoes.—Almost all potatoes coming forward are meeting with good demand and a ready sale on arrival. Good seed potatoes are in strong demand, and anything especially in British Queen and up-to-date varieties are much inquired for. Choice, £4 5s to £4 10s; good table, £4 to £4 5s; medium to good, £3 1s; inferior, £2 10s to £2 15s.

Chaff.—The market is still very firm for really prime quality, sales having taken place at up to £5 10s. During the last day or two the demand for medium has increased, and is readily sold at up to £5 5s. Quotations: Prime oaten sheaf, £5 7s 6d to £5 10s; medium, £5 to £5 5s; light and inferior, £4 10s to £4 15s; oaten straw chaff, £2 15s to £3; wheaten, £2 5s to £2 10s (bags extra).

Turnips.—There are a fair number offering, and prices have receded from 1s to 2s per ton. Best swedes are quoted from 23s to 24s (loose, ex truck).

Pressed Straw.—Quotations: Oaten, £2 15s to £2 17s 6d; wheaten, 35s to £2 2s 6d.

WOOL

Messrs. Stronach, Morris, and Co. report:—
Rabbitskins.—We offered a medium catalogue on Monday, when prices for all sorts were fully from 3/4d to 1d per lb better than at the preceding sale. We sold prime winter does at 20 1/2d per lb, winters mixed at 17 1/2d, early winters 15 1/2d, autumns to 14 1/2d, summers, 9 1/2d, and small 6 1/2d.

Sheepskins.—We offered a large catalogue on Tuesday, when prices were from 3/4d to 1d easier than at last week's sale. Buyers were not so keen, and a good many lines were passed. Best half-bred, to 9 1/2d per lb; good crossbred, 7 1/2d to 8 1/2d; merino and inferior skins, from 4 1/2d to 6d.

Tallow and Fat.—All coming forward is easily sold at prices quite on a par with last week's rates.

WANTED.—A Respectable Middle-aged Woman as House-keeper. Good References indispensable. Apply, care of TABLET Office.
