ST. PATRICK'S DAY

CHRISTCHURCH

(Bŷ telegraph from our own correspondent.)

The solemnity of the festival of the Apostle of Ireland was observed in the Cathedral on Sunday. At the first Mass, celebrated by his Lordship the Bishop, a large body of members of the H.A.C.B. Society approached the Holy Table, and at the eleven o'clock Mass the Rev. Father Price, Adm., delivered a very fine panegyric of St. Patrick.

Mass the Rev. Father Price, Adm., delivered a very fine panegyric of St. Patrick.

On Tuesday night the annual Irish national concert, under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Day celebration committee, and in aid of that most worthy local charity, Nazareth House, was given in His Majesty's Theatre. The celebration was under the patronage of his Excellency the Governor Lord Plunket, Sir. J. G. Ward, K.C.M.G., his Lordship Bishop Grimes, S.M., Sir George Clifford, Bart., his Worship the Mayor and City Councillors, and other prominent citizens. The general committee and sub-committees, which controlled the various arrangements, worked long and zealously in connection with the event, and apparently nothing was omitted whereby complete success could be assured. The ladies' committee aided most energetically The following was the programme:—Part I.—Overture, 'Memories of Ireland,' Orchestra; song, 'To my first love,' Mr. R. Allen, song, 'Phelim's wake,' Mrs. C. M. Brooke; song, 'The minstrel boy,' Mr. R. Vincent; song, 'Come back to Erin,' Mrs. Gower-Burns; violin solo, 'Hungarian dance,' Miss Thackerey; song, 'Off to Philadelphia,' Mr. J. E. Hamill. Pcrt II.—March, Irish hearts,' Orchestra; song, 'Kathleen Mavourneen,' Mrs. Gower-Burns; grand instrumental selection, 'Moonlight,' Mr. E. J. Painter's Ladies' Estudiantina Band; song, 'She is far from the land,' Mr. Claude Allan; song, 'The exile,' Mrs. C. M. Brooke; song, 'Father O'Flynn,' Mr. J. E. Hamill. Miss Katie Young was accompanist, and Mr. G. H. Scarse musical director and conductor. This is the first occasion here that Mr. Scarse has organised and directed a concert programme, and the result was everything to be desired. Mr. E. J. Painter was leader of the occhestra.

The concert was a brilliant success. The audience crowded the full limits of the theatre. Among those sesent were his Lordship the Bishop, the clergy of the city and surrounding districts. The programme numbers elicited the greatest enthusiasm, and there were recalls in every instance.

For some years the celebration of St. Patrick's Dayin Dunedin has been confined to a National concert in the evening, and this year has been no exception to the rule. During the past few weeks an energetic committee, with Mr. W. P. Rodgers as secretary, had been actively en aged in making arrangements for the celebration, with the result that they were in a position to present a fine programme to the very large audience that filled every part of the Garrison-Hall on Tuesday evening. The programme items were nearly all of a national character, and were interpreted by the various performers in a manner which left little to be desired. Encores were the order of the evening, and no soloist escaped thus mark of appreciation. The opening number was a selecsion, I Irish Airs,' by the well known Kaikorai Band, under the conductorship of Mr. G. Laidlaw. The Band also open d the second part of the programme with 'a selection from 'Maritana,' and it is needless to say that both items were remarkably well played. Miss G. Meenan sang with much artistic taste 'Come back to Erin,' for which she was enthusiastically recalled. Miss H.
Sweeney's programme items were 'Terence's farewell'
