Gerstena Food Talks, No. 4

“My 12 months old baby makes two meals every day of ‘Gerstena’ Milk Porridge”

This is what Mrs F. Baxter, of Temuka, writes, adding, too:—“I find it better than more expensive foods.” Hundreds of mothers throughout the Dominion will endorse this.

Any child that is ailing at all, and over nine months old, will grow strong and chubby, a real bouncing little bundle of health, if reared on made with Milk.

There's nothing to hurt the most delicate child in “Gerstena”—it's just the pure concentrated flour of sun-ripened cereals, with all the indigestible husks removed.

And as for little boys and girls—well, Mrs H. S. Hook, of Levin, writes:—“If ‘Gerstena’ was not made, my children (and I have six in family) would think they had no breakfast.”

Remember, “Gerstena” is different to all other porridge meals, because the special process by which it is made concentrates the food content into half the usual bulk, and every particle of the meal is digestible.
