DEAR MEAT

—AND A WAY OUT

The idea that we must eat a lot of meat to nourish the body is wrong—and with the high cost of meat to-day entails a big butcher's bill!

For every ounce of body-building food in rump steak there are three ounces in Gerstena Porridge, whilst a bag of Gerstena contains as much nutriment as an average-sized leg of mutton or a round of beef—the difference in cost is great and all in favour of Gerstena.

Moreover, Gerstena contains nerve-building and energy-giving properties to the same excess—and these are made at once available for the human digestion by the special process by which Gerstena is manufactured. That's why Gerstena only requires two minutes' cooking.
