Breathes there a Man with soul so dead

Who never to himself hath said:

'My trade of late is getting bad,
I'll try another two-inch ad.'

If such there be, go mark him well,
For him no bank account shall swell.

No angel watch the golden stair
To welcome him a millionaire:
The man who never asks for trade,
By local lines or ad. displayed,
Cares more for rest than worldly gain

And patronage must give him pain.
Tread lightly, friends, let no rude sound

Disturb his solitude profound.
Here let him live in calm repose,
Unought by men (except he owes),
And when he dies, go plant him deep.

That night may break his dream-
less sleep.

Where no rude clamor may dispell
The quiet that he loved so well.
And that the world may know its loss.

Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on a stone above 'Here lies
A man who wouldn't advertise.'
