THE CREAM OF GOOD READING

Josh Billings used to deliver a lecture on milk, which he began by saying: 'I have read much on the subject of milk, and I have seen much on milk; but the best thing I have ever seen on milk is cream.' And this is the best thing to see on any subject,—the cream of it. And it is precisely the cream of reading that most people never get. You turn over the pages of a monster Sunday paper to find a few articles here and there which interest you. But every page of your Catholic paper has articles appealing directly to your interest and written from your standpoint.—Catholic Citizen.
