PRIVATE W. E. HAROLD.

Private W. E. Harold, 4th New Zealand Machine Gun Section, who was killed in action on June 7, was second son of Mr. D. Harold, Kilmore, Waimiro. A

PRIVATE EDWARD FRIEL.

Private Edward Friel, who died from wounds in France on June 2, was born at Pleasant Point. He came to Otago five years ago, and followed farming. He enlisted in the 19th Reinforcements from Puke Ti.

PRIVATE EDWARD FRIEL.

He was of a kindly and gentle disposition, of upright, genial character, and a staunch Catholic. His death at the age of 30 years is regretted by a wide circle of friends. Sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late soldier in their bereavement.—R.I.P.

PRIVATE R. P. HANRAHAN.

Another promising young man, in the person of Private "Rod" Hanrahan, has been reported as killed in action last month in the big battle at Messines. The late Private Hanrahan, who was the sixth son of the late William and Mrs. Hanrahan, of Tainui street, Grey-mouth, and formerly of Goldsbrough, enlisted with the 16th Reinforcements, two brothers, Edward and Joseph, also leaving with the same draft. The late Private Hanrahan was a most popular young man, and
