ELTHAM

Wanted 20,000 CATHOLICS TO SEND 1/-

Newly-formed parish—£600 debt on Church—School urgently needs enlarging—NO PRESBYTERY. The virtue of charity to be Christ-like must be active, universal, and sympathetic. As a proof that this Divine virtue is not dead amongst us will 20,000 Catholics send me ONE SHILLING to enable me to build a Presbytery. It means so little to you, but so much to me. Mass every Saturday for intentions of subscribers, for repose of souls of deceased N.Z. soldiers, and for the spiritual and temporal welfare of those at the Fronts. FATHER JAMES ARKWRIGHT, ELTHAM.

CATHOLIC ROLL OF HONOR

TO NEXT-OF-KIN OF DECEASED N.Z. SOLDIERS
THE FEILDING PARISH is erecting a MEMORIAL CHURCH to your heroic dead of whom it is compiling a Roll of Honor. Mass will be said regularly for all whose names are on this Roll (which will be on record in the new Church), and weekly for them in the present Church until the Memorial Church is completed.

Ensure a weekly Mass for the souls of your gallant dead by sending their names, regiments, and date and place of death at once to—

THE SECRETARY FEILDING PARISH COMMITTEE,
Box 42, FEILDING.

THE ROSARY

NEXT week will find us in October, which is the month of the Rosary. The first Sunday is specially dedicated to the commemoration of that beautiful and efficacious prayer which is, as its name indicates, a crown of roses woven for the Mother of God. True devotion to her is salvation, and in no way can a child of Mary manifest his love for his Mother better than by the daily recital of the Rosary. That the love of God remained strong and pure in the hearts of the French and Italian people is due to their love for Mary. The strength which sustained Ireland during the years of her passion was in great measure the fruit of her fidelity to the Rosary; for the Coroin Mhuire was the consolation of her people through troubled years, and very often, when no church was left erect and the priests were hunted, the Rosary became a substitute for the Mass in green Erin. It was the prayer of the "Wild Geese" centuries ago; it endowed the brave men
