HERO, BISHOP, AND MARTYR

It was arranged in England recently to celebrate the 800th anniversary of the birth of Thomas a' Becket, the most celebrated Catholic prelate in English annals...

It is related that Gilbert, the father of a' Becket, had in his youth accompanied a crusade to the Holy Land. While in Syria he was taken prisoner by a Saracen of high rank...

Evidently there was not a great deal of chivalry or gratitude in the heart of Gilbert a' Beckett, for he permitted the years to pass without even sending a message to the love-lorn maiden who was awaiting his coming...

Arrived in London, she set about the usual work of searching out her lover, and fortune favoring her, she found him. He had not married, and on his personal credit he was able to reward the fair Saracen with a long courtship by taking her to his home and heart...

At the same time 20 persons arrive from the city of New Zealand, and the total number of passengers on board is 45 300, and the total tonnage of the ship is 10 000 tons.

Father Corti, S.J., of the Mangalore Diocese, who hails from a family of Italian mountaineers of Ticino, and who is 62 years of age, has been invested by the Governor of Madras with the Kaiser-i-Hind gold medal.

There is a Christian who would build, he who has received an injury or done a wrong should for his own sake do well to forgive the offender and forgive the rest.

The happiness of a nation can be destroyed by any two people in it, each determined daily to have his or her own way. Religion, poverty, position or obscurity have nothing to do with it.
