FIRE-SWEPT PARISH, OHAKUNE

Our people, feeling the need of Catholic education for their children, determined to provide them with a Catholic school. This year a large and commodious school (where more than 80 Catholic children are now taught) was erected at a cost of £1600, and a convent was purchased at a cost of £1400—that is, a total of £3000. Our people have subscribed generously, but they are not rich in this world's goods, and they could only reduce the debt by £800. £2200 still remains as a debt. Since the erection of school and convent the terrible bush fires of last March swept over the district, inflicting heavy loss on some of our people. Moreover, we have no church and no presbytery yet. We are badly off. Hence we appeal to the benevolent throughout the Dominion to help us to keep the Faith in this backblocks and fire-swept parish. We are running a bazaar on November 20 to relieve our debt. Donations in kind or money will be gratefully received and personally acknowledged. Address—

FATHER GUINANE, Ohakune.

ALIEN RELIGIOUS.

The recent agitation against persons in England of enemy origin, and the passing of a new act to deal with these cases, brings up again the question of priests and religious who come into this classification. Both Catholics and Protestants are concerned. Many of the Catholics are members of religious Orders. The government seems inclined to leave the matter to a very large extent in the hands of the Cardinal Archbishop, who in one instance appointed a British superior, who is responsible for every member of the religious household.

The whole question of priests and religious of enemy origin is to come before the House of Commons Committee shortly. Under the Hague Convention there are only two courses open—they can be repatriated, or exempt from internment or repatriated. But they cannot be interned unless they break the laws or are of bad moral character, and it is practically certain that the charitable works they are performing will cause them to be exempt from any proceedings under the next Act, which is aimed against persons who are working in the interests of the enemy, and not to restrict religious persons in the carrying out of their duties.

Self-mastery is a great thing. It is not gained all at once, but by little victories at a time. Every near victory gives fresh strength for greater victories in the future. It is important, therefore, that we practise self-control daily in little things.

MEMORIAL TO FATHER DORE

AN APPEAL.

At a meeting of the parishioners of the late Father Dore, held on Sunday, July 28, it was resolved that a suitable memorial be erected to his memory; and as it was Father Dore's most keen desire, often expressed, to erect a new church at Foxton, that said memorial be a new church.

It was also resolved that a Subscription List be now opened, so that the many friends of Father Dore throughout the Dominion may have an opportunity of showing their appreciation of him who was such a sincere and faithful friend to their boys in their dire hour of need on the stricken field of Gallipoli.

Mr. James Hurley was elected chairman of the Memorial Committee, Father Forrestal and Mr. Denis Purcell joint treasurers and secretaries. Subscriptions will be received by the above, and also by the Tablet, in which all will be acknowledged.
