FIRE-SWEPT PARISH, OHAKUNE

Our people, feeling the need of Catholic education for their children, determined to provide them with a Catholic school. This year a large and commodious school (where more than 80 Catholic children are now taught) was erected at a cost of £1600, and a convent was purchased at a cost of £1400, that is, a total of £3000. Our people have subscribed generously, but they are not rich in this world's goods, and they could only reduce the debt by £800. £2200 still remains as a debt. Since the erection of school and convent the terrible bush fires of last March swept over the district, inflicting heavy loss on some of our people. Moreover, we have no church and no presbytery yet. We are badly off. Hence we appeal to the benevolent throughout the Dominion to help us to keep the Faith in this backblocks and fire-swept parish. We are running a bazaar on November 29 to reduce our debt. Donations in kind or money will be gratefully received and personally acknowledged. Address—

FATHER GUINANE, Ohakune.

MACAULAY.

In a speech to the British Parliament in 1845 Lord Macaulay said: "Two hundred and eighty-five years has this Church (the Anglican) been at work. What could have been done for it in the way of authority, privilege, endowment, which has not been done?"

And what have we to show for all the lavish expenditure? What, but the most zealous Roman Catholic population on the face of the earth? On the great solid Mass of the Catholic population you have made no impression whatever. There they are, as they were ages ago, ten to one against the members of your Established Church. . . . If I were a Catholic I could easily account for the phenomenon. If I were a Catholic I should content myself with saying that the mighty hand and the outstretched arm had been put forth according to the promise in defence of the unchangeable Church."

Says a Papist Father: No man who realises the value of his soul will neglect to use the grace God gives him. And God gives abundantly. Through the merits of Jesus Christ grace comes to us to enable us to do good and avoid evil. Every Holy Mass attended, every confession and Communion, every prayer well said, is a channel of grace; and besides these, how many times every day by the special providence of God there is "borne in upon the understanding and the will" some good thought or impression that is a grace from heaven.

MEMORIAL TO FATHER DORE

AN APPEAL.

At a meeting of the parishioners of the late Father Dore, held on Sunday, July 28, it was resolved that a suitable memorial be erected to his memory; and as it was Father Dore's most keen desire, often expressed, to erect a new church at Foxton, that said memorial be a new church.

It was also resolved that a Subscription List be now opened, so that the many friends of Father Dore throughout the Dominion may have an opportunity of showing their appreciation of him who was such a sincere and faithful friend to their boys in their dire hour of need on the stricken field of Gallipoli.

Mr. James Hurley was elected chairman of the Memorial Committee, Father Forrestal and Mr. Denis Purcell joint treasurers and secretaries. Subscriptions will be received by the above, and also by the Tablet, in which all will be acknowledged.
