The History of Tea No. 4

In Charles
 the Second's days.

Ringlets and ruffles, periwigs and perique—the fripperies and frivolities of the time covered folks who really differed but little from ourselves. In 1678, good tea was valued as it is now, but in those days there was no "Amber Tips" brand giving such quality, flavour, purity and value—and at a moderate price.

"Amber Tips" Tea.

EVERYBODY'S FAVOURITE

possesses all the delicate, rich, true Ceylon flavour and fragrance. Despite rising costs it is still the same blend of the world's finest teas—try it!
