

which they were incorporated in 1905 for the special purpose of publishing the Encyclopedia. The new name has been chosen to do away with the confusion that had gradually arisen between the former name and that of the older house of D. Appleton and Co. When the Catholic Encyclopedia was started, as there was no Catholic publishing house ready to undertake its publication, a special company was formed for this purpose. This company was always a distinct corporation, entirely independent of any other house, with its own capital, officers, and Board of Directors consisting of men prominent in Catholic affairs. It was named Robert Appleton Co. because two members of the Appleton family, who had formerly been partners in the D. Appleton Company, but who had retired from the same, offered their services for the purpose of publishing the Catholic Encyclopedia, one as manager and the other as superintendent of the works. As their name was well-known in the publishing world there was no reason why it should not be used for the name of the new Company.

*

Gradually, however, confusion arose between the names of the two Appleton companies, so that the Editors and Directors of the Encyclopedia decided that it was advisable to change the name. In choosing their new title, The Encyclopedia Press, they have chosen one that suits the character of the publication already completed, whilst it will also be suitable for other similar publications which they are urged on all sides to undertake. This change of name does not mean that the company itself will be changed in any sense; the Directors, Officers, the Board of Editors, the administration and the policy of the company will remain the same. Conde B. Pallen is President of the Encyclopedia Press; Arthur Kenedy, Vice-President and Treasurer; Walter Magee, Assistant Treasurer and Secretary. The Directors of the company are the Editors: Charles G. Herbermann, Edward A. Pace, Conde B. Pallen, Thomas J. Shahan, John J. Wynne, and Arthur Kenedy, Robert Appleton, John D. Crimmins, Edward Eyre, Eugene A. Philbin, Andrew J. Shipman, Charles W. Sloane, Thomas F. Woodlock.

DIocese OF DUNEDIN

The Very Rev. Father Roche, C.S.S.R., returned to Wellington on Tuesday.

Rev. Father Tuohy, C.S.S.R., is engaged this week in Lawrence, where he is conducting a retreat for the Children of Mary.

On Wednesday, the ladies in charge of the St. Vincent de Paul stall at the bazaar held a gift evening in St. Joseph's Hall, when a number of useful and ornamental articles were presented by friends.

Among the children who will participate in the outing to Lawrence to-day, Daffodil Day, kindly and generously provided by Messrs. Simpson and Hart, will be a number from the St. Vincent de Paul Orphanage, South Dunedin.

The devotion of the Forty Hours' Adoration will commence at St. Patrick's Basilica, South Dunedin, on Friday morning, when a Missa Cantata will be celebrated at 7 o'clock. Mass will also be celebrated on Saturday morning, and there will be Solemn High Mass at 11 o'clock on Sunday, when the sermon will be preached by Rev. Father Buckley. Rev. Father Coffey, Adm., will preach on Sunday evening.

The devotion of the Forty Hours' Adoration began in St. Joseph's Cathedral on Friday morning with the celebration of Solemn High Mass at nine o'clock, at which his Lordship Bishop Verdon presided. Rev. Father Buckley was celebrant, Rev. Father Corcoran deacon, Rev. Father Kavanagh subdeacon, and Rev. Father Coffey, Adm., master of ceremonies. In the evening there were devotions, sermon by the Rev. Father Coffey, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. On Saturday morning the Missa Pro Pace was celebrated by Rev. Father Buckley, and in the evening there was Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. His Lordship the Bishop presided at Solemn High Mass at eleven o'clock on Sunday. Rev. Father Buckley was celebrant, Rev. Father Kavanagh deacon, Rev. B. Kaveney (Holy Cross College) subdeacon, and Rev. Father Corcoran master of ceremonies. The occasional discourse was preached by the Very Rev. Father Roche, C.S.S.R., who also preached at Vespers. In the evening after Vespers there was a procession of the Blessed Sacrament in which the parish sodalities took part. The ceremonies were brought to a close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. At three o'clock on Sunday afternoon the usual procession in connection with the Feast of the Holy Rosary took place from St. Joseph's School to the Cathedral. The procession left the school in the following order: Altar boys, pupils of the Christian Brothers' School, students of St. Dominic's College, pupils of St. Joseph's School, and Children of Mary in regalia with their banners. The school children also carried banners. The procession was a pretty sight. On arriving at the Cathedral the Rosary was recited. During the Forty Hours' Adoration large numbers approached the Holy Table, this being especially the case at the early Masses on Sunday.

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' SCHOOL BAZAAR

It is now thirty-seven years since the Christian Brothers came to Dunedin, and during that time they have made a name for themselves, as they have done in every part of the world where they have established schools, as successful teachers. Their work here, although carried on under many drawbacks, has been eminently successful, and if we want to see the results we have only to look around, and see how many of their old pupils occupy leading positions in the professions, in business, and in public life—a credit to their devoted teachers, to themselves, and the Catholic community. The Brothers have carried on their work under many difficulties, still these have not in anyway interfered with the thoroughness of the education imparted to their pupils. But now the time has come—in fact it came many years ago but the conditions were not favorable—for providing a suitable school building, and the unanimity and enthusiasm with which the proposal has been taken up, show that the Catholics of Dunedin, as well as friends in other parts of the diocese, are determined that this long-felt want will be supplied in the near future. To assist in this object, the ladies of the city and suburbs have been engaged for some months in preparing for the bazaar, which will be opened in His Majesty's Theatre on Monday evening. The result of that undertaking will be, it is hoped, the erection of a fully equipped and up-to-date school in every way worthy of Dunedin, and of the self-sacrificing Brothers who have done, and are doing, so much for Catholic education.

In all there will be eight stalls—Italy (Mrs. Shiel), India (Children of Mary—Miss Rodgers), Ireland (Mrs. Marlow), Japan (Miss Staunton), Spain (Mesdames Sweeney, Duffy, Street, and Moloney), Great Britain (Mesdames Hungerford, Rosbotham, and Lynch), America (Mrs. Jackson), Old Boys' Emporium (committee)—and a number of side shows. The stock of varied goods will make the most attractive display ever seen at a similar carnival in Dunedin.

The spectacular display, under the direction of Miss Hamann, will be a feast of color, of intricate evolutions and marches, and of quaint and artistic dances. It is needless to say that the tug-of-war contest will appeal to all who take an interest in physical competitions, and the generous prizes offered have brought forth entries from an unprecedented number of teams.

Everything is now in readiness for the opening ceremony, which will be performed by his Worship the Mayor of Dunedin.

J. T. COOPER

DENTAL SURGEON,
Corner MANSE AND PRINCES STREETS, DUNEDIN.

Advice Free. No charge for Extraction when Teeth Supplied.