What will you do to-night?

This night in lots of New Zealand homes, by cheery firesides, many energetic young men are engaged in the pleasant and profitable business of self-improvement.

All are fired with the spirit of ambition and achievement. All are determined that they will not remain in subordinate positions. Through the medium of they are equipping themselves with knowledge—practical, specialised knowledge that will assure for them speedy advancement and financial security.

For twenty-eight years, young men have been utilising their spare-time studying under Hemingway's skilled guidance. Today you'll find those men in good billets in every profession, in every branch of commercial life.

Now, while YOU are young, is the time to spend a proportion of your leisure hours in studying to assure future prosperity. Write to-day, stating what branch of business you are in, to

Quickest Shorthand Training

AT GILBY'S COLLE

EASIEST LEARNED

EASIEST WRITTEN

EASIEST READ

Gilby's College, guided by the exacting requirements of business in determining what training is needed to make first-class shorthand-writers, has taken the New Zealand Agency for teaching Gregg's Shorthand.

The easiest learned, easiest written, and easiest read shorthand system known.

Read what an Editor of the "New Zealand Tablet" says:—"Of the systems I am acquainted with it is the simplest, the most scientific, the quickest to learn, and the easiest to retain."

Tuition by class or correspondence in eighteen simple lessons. Students have written 100 words a minute within three months. Call, ring, or write
