"Hello, Jim! I've been thinking of you all day."

"Why, what's wrong?"

"I want to send my skins away, and could not think of the name of the firm that gave you the Big Prices."

Have decided to issue 25,000 6½% CUMULATIVE PREFERENCE SHARES OF £1 EACH, at par, dividends on which will accrue from date payments are received. This expansion is essential to take care of the phenomenal increase of business, which is considerably in excess of the Christchurch Factory capacity; and, as most of the excess business comes from the North Island, it is the logical and just thing to establish a North Island Factory, for which purpose a suitable site has been secured at Penrose Junction, plans of Factory already prepared, and it is confidently anticipated that the new Factory will be in active operation within twelve months.

BOOTH, MACDONALD & CO. LTD., have never missed paying a dividend and have assets sufficient to pay off all liabilities (exclusive of capital) three times over! It is confidently anticipated that the above issue will be rapidly taken up, and early application—on the form hereunder—is therefore advisable.

To the DIRECTORS of BOOTH, MACDONALD, & Co., LTD., CHRISTCHURCH.
