Attractive Music for the Coming Season

Teachers will do well, when the new term commences, to have material at hand to make their work a complete success. Here are a few of the latest Salon compositions (for the Piano) by the popular composer—Harry Hiscocks: "Noel" (Le Reve de Bethleem—Christmas Pastorale), "In Paradisum" (Melodie celeste, with variations), "Dream of Roses" (Romance), "Pearls of Dew" (Mazurka), "La Rose Blanche" (Gavotte), "Le Chant Des Fleurs" (Morceau).

Also by the same composer:—"The Nun's Prayer" (Fantasia), "Wild Roses" (Morceau), "Fall of Pearls" (Marzurka), "The Angelus" (Nocturne), etc., etc.

These are works of superlative merit in charm and character.

In the Press (shortly to arrive from London):—

"L'Avalanche" (The Avalanche), (Fantasia de Concert).

On sale by the composer; price 2s net.

Address:

18 NEW STREET PONSONBY, AUCKLAND.
