TO Give Yuletide Gifts to every
close relative and
friend and to give only really good and

serviceable articles is the desire of almost everybody; and yet how many there are who cannot do so because money seems to buy so little these days.

Note that we say "seems to buy so little." It's largely a matter of where you secure your gifts and what you select.

At this store you will find a varied selection of gifts appropriate to everybody and at prices, too, which will enable you to give something of quality to all whom you wish to remember.

We would especially urge on you the advisability of selecting your Christmas gifts early while full stocks are available. Then we can give you the closest attention and you can also take more time to choose.
