

Stolen on the night of the 31st August, 1863, from the trousers pocket of William Shortell, while asleep in the Bellvue boarding house, Bell Hill, Dunedin, one £5 note and 1 sovereign. Suspicion attached to a man from 25 to 30 years old, short light hair, no whiskers, small goatee; dressed in blue jumper, striped trousers and dark cap with peak.

Stolen about 7 p.m., the 2nd Sept., 1863, from the shop door of Messrs. Herbert, Hayes, and Co., Drapers, Princes Street, Dunedin, a roll of green tartan, 48 yards.

Stolen about 10 a.m. the 1st September, 1863, from the dwelling of Mr. Edward Anderson, Waipori, miller, his property, one double barrelled gun, maker Manton, the right barrel burst, one rug red one side and black on the other, and other articles, no person in charge of the house at the time.

Stolen on the 1st September, 1863, from near Pelichet Bay, a nearly new white tarpaulin, 10 x 12, with eyelet holes round the edge, the property of Mr. Archibald Oughton of Pelichet Bay, Lime Burner.

Stolen during the night of the 31st August, 1863, from the tent of Peter Nicholas at Port Chalmers (no person being in charge of the tent at the time), a purse containing one £50 Bank note of the Union Bank, Dunedin, number not known at present, and a certificate of character from J. K. Fryer, Esq., Victoria.

Stolen on the afternoon of the 10th Sept., 1863, from the person of Samuel Lery, of Bell Hill, Dunedin, supposed in one of the sale rooms, a silver gilt $\frac{3}{4}$ plate Geneva hunting watch. "The Prize Medal lever click-work" on dial; sank seconds, chased edges, engine-turned case; 7 gold rings set with turquoise and green stone; and a colonial gold wedding ring.

Stolen about 9 o'clock, on the 14th Sept., 1863, from a bed-room at the Royal George Hotel, North Dunedin, a nearly new colonial gold ring, weight about $6\frac{1}{2}$ dwts, an anchor engraved on the shield; the property of Mr. William Cunningham.

Stolen during the night of the 5th Sept., 1863, from Sydney S. Marshall, a small double case silver Geneva watch, No. supposed to be 31174; a steel guard with brass key attached. Mr. Marshall was a lodger at the Hibernia lodging-house, Maclaggan-street, and on the night in question, when going to bed, placed the watch under his pillow, from whence it was stolen.

Stolen on the night of the 9th September, 1863, from his residence next the Waverley Hotel, Dunedin, an open face silver lever watch, No. 12183, scratch on dial very faint; the property of Mr. James Revor.

A warrant has been issued by the Tuapeka Bench for the apprehension of George Pickup, charged with embezzling £140, the monies of Mr. William Griffin of Tuapeka, butcher. Description:—30 year' old, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout build, fair complexion, brown hair, no whiskers or moustache; generally dressed in old blue shirt, knee breeches, and boots.

A warrant has been issued by the Port Chalmers Bench for the apprehension of William Davis, charged with obtaining the sum of £15 from Messrs. Mitchell, Hammill & Co. of Caversham, on the 1st September, 1863, under false pretences

Description of Davis:—35 to 40 years' old, 5 feet 9 inches high, dark complexion, hair, and eyes, dark whiskers worn long; a Cornishman; dressed in light clothes.

A warrant has been issued by the Waikouaiti Bench for the apprehension of Joseph Graham, charged with having, on the 9th day of September, 1863, embezzled forty halves of forty £1 notes, the property of his employer, Mr. Phillip Whelan, of the Halfway Hotel, Kyeburn. Two of the halves have been subsequently traced, have been attached together by Graham, and passed off as a £1 note.

Description:—25 years' old, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout build, fair complexion, brown hair, light whiskers worn under the chin; dressed in brown jumper, moleskin trousers, and light felt hat; has been many years in the colony, and speaks the aboriginal language fluently.

A warrant has been issued by the Dunedin Bench for the apprehension of Christopher Fitzsimmons, charged with disobeying a summons for keeping a disorderly house. Description—55 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, very dark and sallow complexion, black hair mixed with grey; black whiskers, worn half-way down the face, no moustache; very low looking; has the appearance of an old hand; dressed in moleskin trousers, dark vest, dark cloth shooting coat, and black billycock hat; by trade a bricklayer; kept the Inglewood Boarding-house, Maclaggan-street.

MISSING FRIENDS.

Information is requested by the friends of a young man, named Charles Deane, of Redfern, near Sydney, who left there about 18 months' since for the Dunedin Diggings, and was last heard of from Waikouaiti, by letter dated 20th July, 1862.

Left her home, High-street, Dunedin, on the 4th September, 1863, Margaret Jane Williamson (of unsound mind), and has not since been heard of.

Description:—33 years' old, short, fair complexion, dark hair, a brown spot on right arm. Dressed in black hat with white rim and red flowers in front, and a grey cape. £5 reward.

PROPERTY LOST AND FOUND.

Lost between 3 and 4 p.m., the 7th Sept., 1863, on the road from Dunedin to Anderson's Bay, a yellow pocket book with steel clasp containing one £5 note, three £1 notes, and about £3 in gold and silver. The property of Mr. Robert Bargie of Tomahawk Valley.