POLICE

GAZETTE.

CONTAINING—The substance of Informations received in cases of Felony and Misdemeanours, and against Receivers of stolen goods, reputed Thieves and Offenders escaped from custody, with the time, place, and circumstances of the offence; the Names of persons known, but not in custody, who are charged with Offences, and descriptions of those who are not known, their appearance, dress, and other marks of identity; the names of Accomplices and Accessories, with every particular which may lead to their apprehension; a description, as accurate as possible, of property that has been stolen, and a minute description of stolen horses, &c., for the purpose of tracing and recovering them.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

No. 24.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1863.

1. POLICE GAZETTE.—Communications for this GAZETTE should be addressed to the "COMMISSIONER OF POLICE, Dunedin," prepaid; they must be of Police interest, or no notice will be taken of them. Officers in charge of stations are requested to report to the Commissioner of Police every instance of the non-delivery of the GAZETTE, and to suggest from time to time such alterations in the addresses and in the mode of transmission as may be considered necessary.

2.—WARRANTS.—Whenever it is desired that any individual whose name is given, shall be apprehended, it should be stated in the advertisement for the GAZETTE whether or not a warrant has been issued for the apprehension of the offender. When a warrant has not been issued in the first instance, any subsequent report announcing the issue of a warrant should repeat the offender's description.

3. NAMES.—It is particularly requested that in all Informations the names of persons and places may be spelt correctly, and written legibly, the Christian name being given with the surname whenever possible, and written in full to prevent mistakes.

4. STRAY CATTLE.—No advertisements of lost horses or cattle will be published in this GAZETTE unless they be Government property, but notices of horses and cattle believed to be stolen will be inserted gratuitously.

5. PROPERTY DESCRIBED.—In forwarding the brands of stolen horses and cattle, it should be stated of what kind of letters the brand consist, whether of Roman capitals, or in writing, &c., and the exact position of the brands should be given, and be imitated as nearly as possible. In giving descriptions of watches, it should be stated whether they are open-faced, hunting, double-cased, or half hunting,—the term "double-cased" being reserved for those watches whose outer case is removed in order to wind; "half-hunting" implying a very small glass in the metal cover of the dial.

6. REWARDS.—No notice of reward offered by any private party or parties will, for the future, be inserted in the POLICE GAZETTE, unless there be forwarded to the Commissioner of Police the guarantee of some responsible person that the reward shall be payable according to law, on the arrest or conviction of the offender, and not merely for the recovery of property.

7. PREVIOUS POLICE GAZETTE REFERENCES.—It is requested that on the arrest of any offender Gazetted, or on information being obtained for which a reward has been publicly offered, or respecting notices published in this GAZETTE, officers in charge of Police, or others concerned, will be good enough to forward intimation thereof to this office, quoting the date and page of the GAZETTE in which such notice has appeared.

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against the Police Department are requested to present them for payment without delay, and all members of the force are required to use all means in their power to facilitate the settlement of the above accounts.

The Government does not hold itself responsible for private debts incurred by members of the Police Force.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY UNDER ARMS.

At 11 a.m., the 2nd November, 1863, as Mr. William Acton, of Switzer's Diggings, storekeeper, was proceeding therefrom to Invercargill via the Pyramid, on horseback, when about eight miles from Switzer's, and the like distance from the Pyramid Camp, he was stopped by three armed men, one having a double-barrelled gun, the other two revolvers, who fired upon and slightly wounded him, and robbed him of over 60 oz. of gold, some of it pretty coarse, some very bright and sealy, and some of it dark, being coated with nitrate of iron, £30 in sovereigns and half-sovereigns, eight £5 notes, a patent English lever hunting watch, made by John Edwards, Liverpool, No. 7202, and a self-acting revolver. The men are thus described by him:—

1st. About 27 years' old, 6 feet high, well built, but not very stout, light brown hair and bushy sandy whiskers not very long; dressed in blue monkey jacket with red lining, torn inside across the shoulder, small Bedford cord trousers, light grey Crimean shirt, drab billycock hat, and low boots.

2nd. About 30 years' old, 5 feet 9 inches high, squints a little with one eye, supposed the right, dark complexion, dark bushy whiskers, dark hair; wore blue cloth monkey jacket, moleskin pants, dark billycock hat, and short boots.

3rd. About 35 years' old, about 5 feet 6 inches high, thin features, light complexion, light brown hair, small whiskers; wore a broad body belt tied with strings, moleskin pants, billycock hat, and short Wellington boots cut in shreds across the toes.

The double barrelled gun had a highly finished stock inlaid with gold or brass, the maker's name in same metal between the barrels, the hammers representing the heads of some animals. One of the revolvers was a large sized Colt's, the other a pepper box.

It has been subsequently reported by Sergeant Hewson, of the Mounted Escort, that a gun answering exactly to the above description, the hammers or cocks representing dolphins, was seen by him on the 12th of October, 1863, at George Fletcher's Accommodation House, at the Elbow, in the Province of Southland. A reward of £20 will be paid to any person giving such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the offenders.

HORSE AND CATTLE STEALING.

Stolen about 8 a.m., the 19th October, 1863, from the Caledonian stables, Hope-street, Dunedin, a light roan mare poney, 11 or 12 hands high, nearly 3 years' old, well made, in good condition, branded M near shoulder; the property of Mr. Norman McLeod, of Dunedin. This poney is now supposed to be on the Taieri Diggings.

Stolen about the beginning of August, 1863, from Kourow, one flea-bitten mare, almost white, branded M (JML) conjoined near shoulder, and her filly, rising 3 years' old, same brand; the property of Mr. Monteath.

Stolen on the 30th October, 1863, from Post Office Creek, Waipori, a black gelding, 5 years old, 15 hands high, branded MC on near shoulder, blaze down face, white spot under near eye, hind fetlocks white, the property of Carleton Parkinson, of Post Office Creek.

Stolen on the 29th October, 1863, from the vicinity of the Surveyors' Tent, Waikouaiti, a black horse; 6 years old, 15 hands high, branded with a large blotch on near shoulder, girth galled on near side, short mane and tail, a lump on off check bone, a few white hairs on forehead, £2 reward on recovery.

Stolen at 5 a.m. on the 31st of October, 1863, from near the Exhibition Boarding House, 6 miles from the Waipori, a light bay horse, between 13 and 14 hands high, branded M on near shoulder, star on forehead, short tail, appearance stiff in both fore legs, the property of Mr. Edward Keaton, of Wether-stones. Suspicion attaches to a man, about 27 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, wore a dark monkey jacket and a wide-a-wake hat.

Stolen on the 15th October, 1863, from the West Taieri Diggings, a bay horse, aged, 16 hands high, star on forehead, branded H near shoulder, had on a cover marked A. D.; the property of Arthur Devery, storkeeper at the Diggings. £5 reward on recovery.

Stolen during the month of July, 1863, from the west side of the Molyneux River, at the Dunstan, a dark iron grey mare, 14 hands high, hind feet white, saddle marked, branded JN conjoined near shoulder; the property of Mr. Solomon Cobb, Dunstan, who offers a reward of £5 on recovery of the mare.

FELONIES AND OFFENCES NOT OTHERWISE DESCRIBED.

Stolen, supposed on board the Titania steamer, between Invercargill and Dunedin, from a box containing 3 watches, a gold English Lever Hunting Watch, maker Rotherham & Son, London, No. 77593, the property of Mr. Frederick Roach, of Rattray Street, Dunedin.

Stolen about 10½ a.m., the 30th October, 1863, from the dwelling-house of George Nelson, George Street, Dunedin, the street door being left open, a large open faced silver lever watch, No. 1421, with black silk guard and brass key attached, the property of Mr. Nelson.

Stolen between the 20th October and 1st November, 1863, from a trunk on board the Southern Ocean, while in transit from Melbourne to Dunedin, 1 single stone diamond ring, plain setting, 1 gold brequet chain, 1 do. guard, 1 gold pin with opal, about £50 worth gold specimens, alluvial and quartz, 1 black dress coat, 4 vests, 1 black silk velvet the others fancy patterns, a pair of black handle razors, and a quantity of carpenter's tools, the property of Antoine Langerin, of Walker Street, Dunedin.

Stolen between the 7th and 11th November, 1863, from a bed-room in the dwelling of Mr. Robert Cox, Princes-street, an open face gold English lever watch, gold dial, sunk seconds, No. 12692, with long gold guard chain attached.

Stolen between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. the 15th November, 1863, from the tent of Thomas Liddle, North-east Valley, 1 pair of Napoleon boots, nearly new, 2 rows of nails round the soles, extending along the waist to the heels, 2 Crimean shirts, and a blue blanket.

Stolen about 2 a.m. the 8th November, 1863, from the tent of C. W. Bell, Potter's Gully, Dunstan, four £5 notes, seven £1 notes, and 11½ oz. of gold, one piece of the gold shaped like a heart, by James Burke, (who asked permission to stop in Bell's tent with him for the night, and left two hours before daylight,) about 32 years' old, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, dark hair and complexion, slightly pock marked, light whiskers, chin and upper lip shaved; dressed in blue woollen shirt, moleskin trousers, light felt hat, and watertight boots; a Sydney native, has the appearance of a stockman.

A warrant has been issued by the Dunstan Bench, dated 23rd October, 1863, for the apprehension of John Liddell alias Hobartown Jack, and — Neil, charged with having had in their possession, at a place known as Dead Horse Gully, in the Dunstan Police District, on the 10th October, 1863, the carcasses of two sheep, the same having been unlawfully obtained contrary to the 15th section of the Town and Country Police Ordinance.

John Liddell, alias Hobartown Jack, is about 40 years' old, 5 feet 6½ inches high, fair complexion and hair, clean shaved, broad face, flat nose, nearly bald; dressed in blue guernsey, moleskin trousers, watertight boots, and tweed cap; likely to have with him a large black and tan bull-terrier dog.

— Neil, 26 years' old, 5 feet 6 inches high, dark hair, no whiskers, very small moustache, marks of a gun-shot wound on nose and over left eye; dressed in check shirt, moleskin trousers, and watertight boots.

PROPERTY LOST AND FOUND.

Found in the possession of James Dunn, (convicted of stealing at Nelson,) supposed to be stolen, and for which owners are required, 1 gold engine-turned hunting watch, enamelled dial, sunk seconds, steel hands, No. 15495, with snake chain and key, 1 electro-gilt open face watch, chased, gilt dial, No. ⁴⁹¹⁸/₆₁₀₇₈; 1 ivory pocket telescope, gilt mounting; 1 gold ring with cameo head and wings; 1 gold pin with dark stone; 1 do. do. brilliant, set in a bird's claw; 1 pear handle knife with 3 blades; and several gilt watch guards of light fabric.

Found in the possession of John, James, and Thomas Frost, now under committal for trial for horse stealing, and supposed to be stolen, a bay horse, draught breed, 15 hands, black points, saddle marked, white spots on both sides, branded JJ near neck, J OB conjoined off neck.

Lost between the hours of 4 and 5 p.m., the 17th November, 1863, near Cargill Hill, Dunedin, from the person of John Burgess, a brown leather pocket book, containing five £5 notes, twelve £1 notes, 5 sovereigns, a receipt for £105 paid for a grey horse, a promissory note drawn by himself upon and accepted by James Cushnie, and an IOU for £40 from James Milne.

Lost on the 6th November, 1863, from the person of Robert Gibson, at the Mount Hindon Diggings, a gold hunting lever watch, maker James Patterson, Royal Exchange, London, No. 21712.
