

Stolen on the 18th ultimo, from the person of Frank Wilson while in a brothel in Machin's right-of-way off Walker-street, Dunedin, two £1 notes, a half sovereign and 8s. in silver. Suspicion attached to two prostitutes named Jane Paul and Alice McNamara.

Lost or Stolen on the 22nd of October last, at the Railway Station, Dunedin, a red cedar box about 2 feet 8 or 10 inches long, and 1 foot 4 or 6 inches wide, containing two pair of flannel trousers, one flannel coat, 4 flannel shirts, several pairs of socks, white socks marked T. Wright, several white and regatta shirts, marked T. Wright, a Scotch cap, a blue smoking cap, with gold braiding, two silk dress coats marked T. Wright, a large red album, a double barrel gun, the barrels fix in with a spring under the breech, two Church of England services, one covered with calf-skin with cross on cover, the name of J. Wright written on the inside of the other, the bottom of a small cash box containing sundry articles, two small iron stamp plates for stamping the names of T. Wright and Thos. Wright, a pair of new grey tweed trousers, a number of under shirts and towels marked T. Wright, a small cane, a silver mounted riding whip 2 pairs of cord riding pants, black binding at bottoms, 10 boxes of collars, about 100 Needle cartridges and sundry other articles, the property of Thomas Wright.

Stolen between the 16th and 29th ultimo, from a building in course of erection in Hanover-street, Dunedin, 80 feet of tongue and grooved lining boards, 3 feet 6 inches long, by 6½ inches broad, the property of Alfred Huett. Value 15s. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 6th ultimo from the clothes line of Margaret Hughes, Athol Place, Dunedin, a pair of white moleskin trousers, nearly new, small tar marks on the knees. Value 10s. Identifiable.

Stolen about the 8th ultimo, from the clothes line of Joseph Farra, Young-street, Dunedin, a calico night shirt, a calico chemise with frills on breast and sleeves, and a pair of lady's drawers with three tucks. Value 13s. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 26th of November last from the stable of Ah Hee, at Roxborough, a pigskin saddle, nearly new, round stirrup irons, two web girths. Value £6. Identifiable.

Stolen about the 14th ultimo from the premises of George Huggins, Cargill-street, Dunedin, a new white double blanket, with border of violet, green and yellow, had a peice of white tape through one end. Value 30s. A black and white shepherd's check shawl, checks about ¼ of an inch. Identifiable.

Stolen about the 10th ultimo from the clothes line of George Wilson, St. Andrew's-street, Dunedin, a pair of dark tweed trousers with small white specks intermixed, worn at bottom by friction of boots, a light print dress with small green flower intermixed, a grey stuff skirt bound with narrow black braid, one flounce at bottom. Value 30s, Identifiable.

Stolen about the 9th ultimo from the clothes line of Micheal McGrath, McLaggan-street, Dunedin, three white shirts, one marked J. M. Conway at bottom. Value 30s. Identifiable.

Stolen during the night of the 5th inst., from a cab in the yard of the Gridiron Hotel, Princes street, Dunedin, a dark pilot overcoat, brown and black striped lining, raised seams, about half worn, the property of James Miller. Value, £2. Identifiable.

Lost or stolen from the person of Josiah Raude, at Oamaru, on the 26th ultimo, a silver lever hunting watch, No. 74127, maker, George Young, Dunedin, had leather guard attached. Value, £9. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 12th ultimo, from the shop of George Richards, George-street, Dunedin, a side of smoked bacon, weighing about 19lbs. Value, 18s.

Stolen about the 17th ultimo, from the clothes-line of Alexander Roy, Pelichet Bay, Dunedin, a linen shirt, nearly new, plain front, T Nicholson marked on bottom of breast, with ink, a French merino singlet with linen gusset. Value, 14s. Identifiable.

Stolen about the 17th ultimo, from the clothes-line of William Charles Trevern, Forth-street, Dunedin, a white calico shirt, nearly new, linen breast and cuffs, no buttons on breast, one button on back of collar-band, with a small spot of rust under button, a plain calico pillow cover, broad hem and tapes. Value, 10s. Identifiable.

Stolen about the 18th ultimo from the store of Daniel Morrison, at Purakanui, near Port Chalmers, an English silver lever hunting watch, maker, Murray, London, No. 42997; composition albert guard, plain medium-sized links, cross-bar wanting, guard attached to watch by a piece of string. Value, £9. Identifiable. Suspicion attached to John Jones, supposed to be English, (says he was born in France,) a miner and labourer, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, short neck, fair short hair, clean shaved except small short moustache, fair complexion, wears light tweed coat and moleskin trousers, worked at M'Kenzie's tunnel near Port Chalmers.

Lost or stolen in April last, while in transit by Chaplin and Co's coach, between Dunedin and Oamaru, a silver lever hunting watch, maker, George Young, Dunedin, No. 37865, maker's name on dial, the property of George Young. Value, £8. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 2nd instant, at Fairfax, near Tokomairiro, from off James Duggan's horses, two horse covers, one marked with the letters J.D. on near side. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 31st ultimo, from the cabin of the lighter 'Edinburgh,' at Jetty-street jetty, Dunedin, a pair of dark blue trousers and single-breasted vest of same material, the property of Thomas B. Spinks. Value, £3. Identifiable.

Stolen on the 31st ultimo, from the clothes-line of Alice M'Namara and Mary M'Loughlin, in Machin's right-of-way, off Walker-street, Dunedin, two white pillow covers, ten pairs white cotton stockings, six white linen pocket handkerchiefs, two white linen jackets, two white towels with fringe at ends, two new chemises, a new white table-cloth, three white aprons, and several other articles. Value, £3. Identifiable. Suspicion attached to a man of the following description. An Irishman, a fish hawker, 25 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, slight